

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Vicki Lynn Pike, born on January 1, 1958, in Tyler, Texas, passed away peacefully on March 14, 2026, at the age of 68. A cherished mother, grandmother, daughter, and friend, Vicki lived a life characterized by her unwavering love for family, a passion for painting, and an infectious joy found in the simple pleasures of life, such as shopping, tending to her flowers, and caring for her beloved puppies.

Vicki spent her professional years as a bank teller, where her kindness and dedication touched the lives of many in the community. She leaves behind her stepfather, Glen Cook; beloved daughter, Cristy Sechrist and husband, Ken; her devoted son, Chad Pike and his wife, Angie. Her legacy continues through her eight cherished grandchildren: Chris Robichaux, Chad Pike II, Cole Pike, Jesse Sechrist, Hunter Sechrist, Faith Sechrist, Wyatt Sechrist, and River Sechrist, alongside three great-grandchildren, Addilynn, Marshall, and Parker. Vicki also found companionship and love in her longtime friend, Jacky Goodwin.

Vicki was preceded in death by her parents; Dorothy Cook and William Thorne; and her sister, Cindy Craft

In this time of mourning, we remember Vicki for her vibrant spirit and the love she shared so generously. Her memory will forever remain in the hearts of her family and friends, who are grateful for the time spent together and the countless ways she enriched their lives.
