Life Journey

Edna Mae Payton was born on August 11, 1946, to Nather and Dorothy Payton in New Orleans, LA. She was the 7th child of 15, consisting of 11 girls and 4 boys. She gave her life to Christ at a young age and was a devout Catholic until the time of her death.

Edna Wright attended Joseph F. Clark High School in New Orleans. Not too long after graduating, Edna moved to Washington, D.C. to help her family with care for their young daughter, Camie. It was there that Edna met the love of her life, the late Benjamin Wright in January 1969 and moved to Detroit, MI to begin their lives together.

Edna worked hard all of her life in order to raise and provide the best life for her two sons, Benjamin Jr., and Bryan. Outside of supporting and spending time with her sons, Edna enjoyed travel, cooking, and spending time relaxing, and watching her Lifetime Movie Network.

Edna departed this life and gained her wings on May 3, 2022. She was preceded in death by her husband Benjamin Wright and her eldest granddaughter Maia Wright, her siblings Virginia Tanniehill, Mamie Davis, Barbara Payton, Floyd Payton, Lutrecia Payton, Joann Fisher, Nathaniel Payton, and Betty Crocker.

She leaves to mourn her passing and cherish her precious memory: Benjamin Wright. Jr and Bryan Fredrick Wright (Taralyn); two granddaughters: Blaire and Brynn Wright; siblings Dorothy Napoleon, Shirley Anderson, Brenda Aubert, Curtis Payton, Donna Polk; her dear special friends Ruby and Jeanie; and a host of nephews and nieces.

A Tribute to Our Mother

There is no night in Heaven
In that blessed world above
Works can never bring weariness
For works itself is love

There is no grief in Heaven
For life is one glad day
And tears are those of former things
Which have passed away

There is no sin in Heaven
Behold that blessed throne
All holy in their spotless robe
All holy in their song

There is no death in Heaven
For they who gain that shore
Have won their immortality
For they have no more

Love You Always,
Benjamin Jr. and Bryan
