THE DAY
God Took You Home

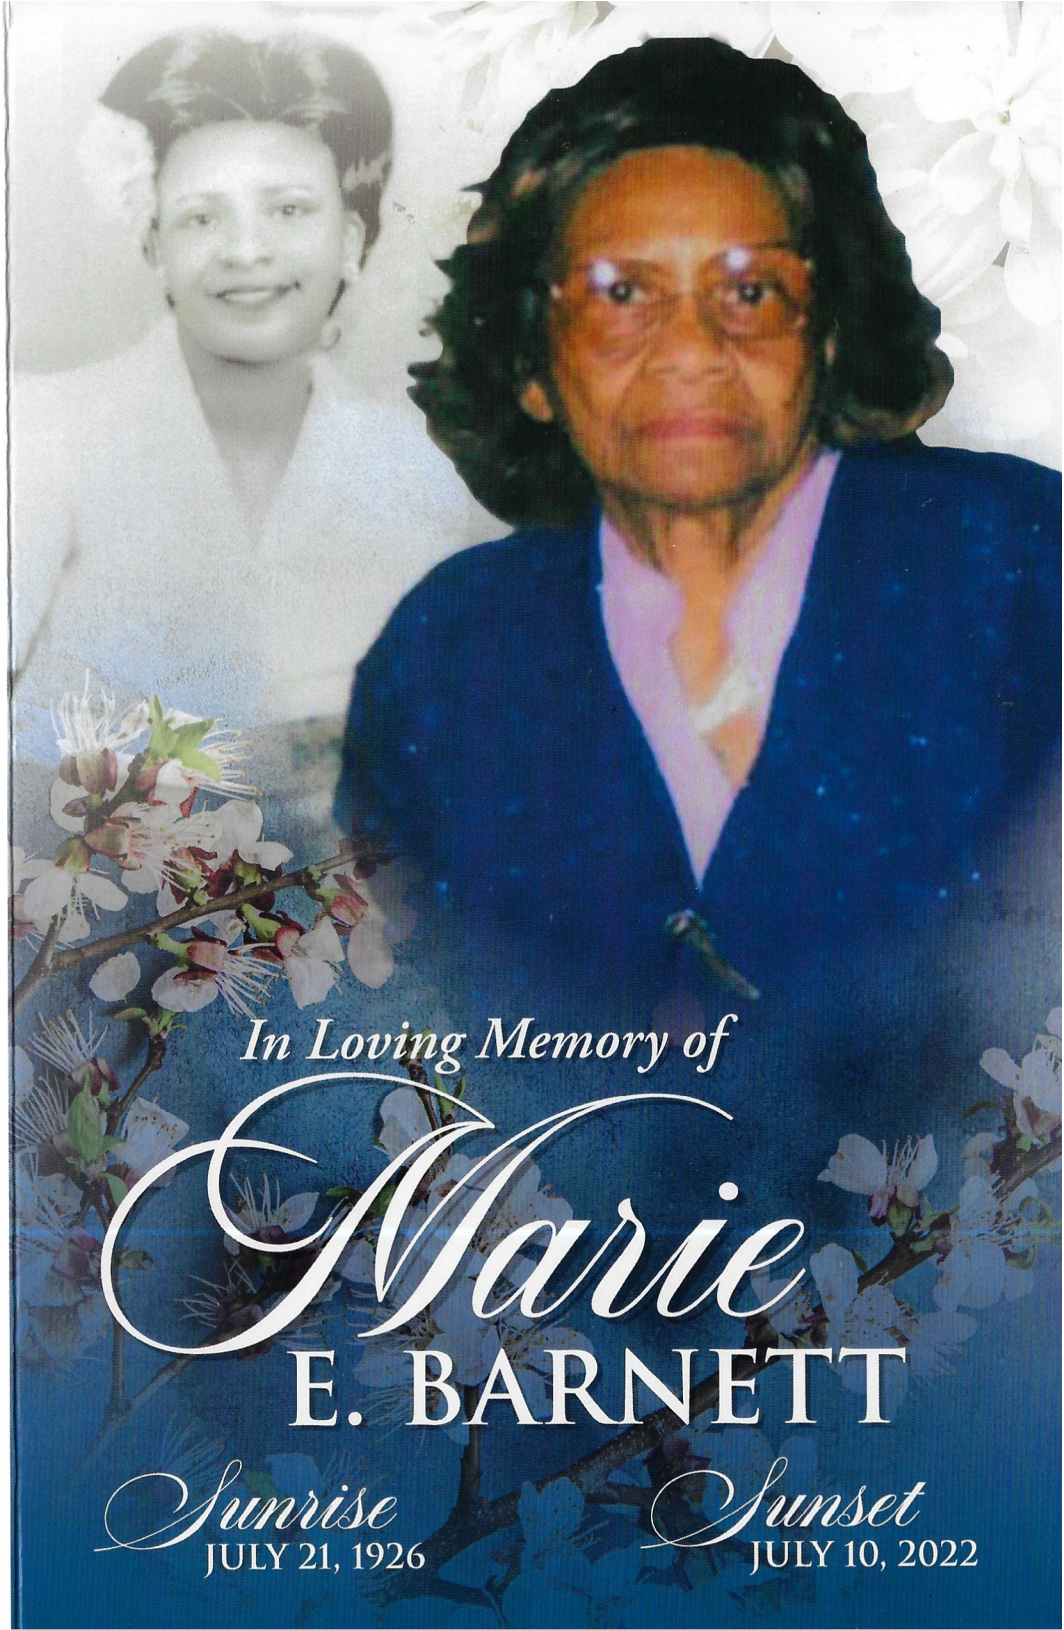

In tears we saw you sinking,
And watched you fade away
Our hearts were almost broken,
We wanted you to stay
But when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain
How could we wish you with use,
to suffer pain again
It broke our hearts to loose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home
Lovingly Submitted, The Family

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family would like to take this opportunity to extend our sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy, words of comfort, and prayers during our time of bereavement.
May God forever bless and keep each of you in His tender loving care.

Marie's Life Story

MARIE ELIZABETH HAWKINS BARNETT was called by the Lord, quietly, Sunday afternoon, July 10, 2022.

Marie was born on July 21, 1926, to the late Lemmie and Luvenia Hawkins in New Berry, SC. The family moved to Philadelphia in 1930 and soon after began attending Temple Baptist Church.

Marie was educated in the Philadelphia Public School System. She attended Robert Vaux Junior High School and graduated at the top of her class. This was where she met Alphonso M Barnett, whom she would later marry in 1944. To this union six children were born.

After getting married she took evening courses in etiquette, sewing and dress making. Marie, or "Rebe," as she was affectionately known to family and friends, loved her working career. She was an exceptionally skilled seamstress and dress maker. She continued this passion she loved for 30 years until her retirement 1991. Marie was known for her wit, humor, wisdom, and love of people. She brought sunshine into every room she entered. She was also known for her kindness, generosity, and words of inspiration. Her home was always open to family. Marie Barnett lived a full and happy life.

Marie was preceded in death by her daughters Elaine Barnett Chisom in 1997, Virginia Greene in 2020, three sisters, Rosalie, Beulah, Mary (Lee) and her brother, John.

She leaves to cherish her memory two daughters, Yvonne, Chisom, and Luvenia Hamilton (Lonnie) all from Philadelphia, PA; two sons, Alphonso Barnett, Jr of Raleigh, NC, and Joseph Barnett (Maria) of Sicklerville, NJ; 16 grandchildren, and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and many friends.
