law Dustin Dumas (Dusty); sisters in law Lorna Mink (Ballantyne), Crystal Genaille; nephews Krishawn and Christopher Jr.; nieces Calena, DeeAnna, Sekwan, Kjersten and Scout; Ivy leaves to mourn all her extended family, the Ballantyne Clan (Winnipeg), Colomb Clans in Pukatawagan, Black Sturgeon Reserve, as well as aunties, uncles, cousins and family too numerous to mention.

Ivy was predeceased by her grandparents John and Lena Colomb, Cornelius and Marie Ballantyne; grandmother Marie Stewart;

As was Ivy's wishes "Keep it simple", live, laugh, love and care for each other, enjoy life. To her special friends Garret, Java, Jessica, Toby, Dieter, Clarrissa, Warren, Kyler, JJ, Gordy and everyone that befriended our daughter we feel your loss and our hearts are with you. – Ivy's Parents.

Ivy's wish in the event of her passing was "please no sad music play something that I would listen to, be happy celebrate with laughter". From Ivy's family – we will miss you greatly, our memories of you will last forever and our hearts will heal in time". Love Mom and Daddy... until we meet again.

Ivy passed into the spirit world on November 7, 2024 at her home in Pukatawagan, Manitoba.

Ivy was born on April 7, 1987 at the Lynn Lake hospital to parents Cornelia and Bruce Colomb.

Ivy was married to Harley Dumas. Ivy served as the MCCN gaming commissioner for many years. Ivy attended FCI in Cranberry Portage, here she made numerous friends from many different communities. Ivy had a warm, gentle, welcoming personality that won her many friends, especially those who were in need of a close friend. Ivy loved the outdoors, canoeing and volley ball, and her favorite pastimes were ice fishing, driving, music and meeting people. Ivy loved music and was the drummer for a local music band (Dogs of Poker). Ivy loved traveling, often driving herself to places she wanted to see. Ivy enjoyed the company of family and friends especially that of her nieces DeeAnna, Calena, Sekwan, Kjersten and Scout, often creating funny videos with them and sharing a laugh. Ivy will be greatly missed by her best friend and companion Garrett McCallum.

Ivy is survived by her husband Harley Dumas; parents Cornelia and Bruce Colomb; Brothers Christopher, Calvin, Carmine and Arlen Dumas; sister Jody; brother in
