

Our Little Angel

You've just walked on ahead of us
And we've got to understand
You must release the ones you love
And let go of their hand.
I try and cope the best I can
But I'm missing you so much
If I could only see you
And once more feel your touch.
Yes, you've just walked on ahead of me
Don't worry we'll be fine
But now and then I swear I feel
Your hand slip into mine.
God took her to His Loving Home
God saw her getting tired, a cure was not to be.
He wrapped her in His loving arms
and whispered 'Come with me.'
She suffered much in silence,
her spirit did not bend.
She faced her pain with courage,
until the very end.
She tried so hard to stay with us
but her fight was not in vain,
God took her to His loving home
and freed her from the pain.

Baby Callie Rose Jackson

With hearts overflowing with love and sorrow, we share that our precious baby girl, Callie Rose Jackson, entered this world on September 7, 2025, and, after ten days of courage and love, passed peacefully on September 17, 2025, in her mother's arms, surrounded by her father, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Though her time here was short, Callie's presence was a gift that filled every moment with love and hope.

Callie's parents spent every day with her, making sure she was never alone, always surrounded by love as she held their fingers every step of the way. Her mommy, Amya Wynn, and daddy, Jaylen Jackson, held onto hope and cherished every heartbeat, every touch, and every memory with their daughter. Callie was adored deeply by her proud big brothers, Dayton and Caiden, who will always carry the memory of their baby sister in their hearts. Callie was also loved by her grandparents: Estee Wynn, Dymarkco Stinson, Latonya Jackson, and Johnnie Jackson II; her great-grandparents: Carol Wynn, Bob Wynn, and Johnnie Jackson I; great-great-grandmother, Lillie Jackson; along with many loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Callie was preceded in death by her grandparents, Linda Jackson and Lynett Jackson; great-great-grandparents, Harold Keene, June Keene, Nathan Wynn, Glendora Wynn, and James Jackson.

Thank you to our family and friends for your prayers, love, and support during this difficult time.
