REMEMBERING Quen

Quen D. Davis was born June 16th, 1980 in Richmond, Virginia to Phyllis Garrard Lewis. On January 11, 2021, Quen transitioned from this life and became a silent guardian for everyone he loved and cherished. As a member of a family that spans different time zones and countries, he was a son, brother, nephew, cousin, and uncle. Yet, he also considered so many friends as family.

Quen graduated from Bladensburg High School in Maryland. Afterwards, his life journey started with a brief stint in the U.S. Army. It continued in the San Diego Job Corps, where he cultivated many life-long relationships, including with the love of his life, Hallie. Although he fell for the California sun, he was an east coast kid at heart, so he ultimately returned to Maryland. Forever compassionate, he selflessly became the primary caregiver for his mother Phyllis while employed as a hotel supervisor. Quen was a dedicated employee, and it showed in his strong work ethic.

His big heart shined through inquisitive and observant eyes. Quen was always there for anyone he cared about and did everything in his power to ensure those he loved were happy and doing well. Although Quen may not have kept in touch everyday, no matter how long between conversations, it always seemed as though no time had passed. He was intentionally personal, caring, thought provoking, and humorous.

Quen enjoyed playing video and board games, attending various events, and spending time with friends. He knew more than anyone about "nerd/geek culture," from the 80's to today. As an encyclopedia of information, he was happy to share his knowledge and humor with anyone who would listen.

Quen knew exactly what to say and how to say it, possessing an infectious zeal that somehow made the bumps in one's life less rocky, simply by being around him. That was Quen's gift: Being everyone's guiding light.

Quen will be sorely missed, and leaves permanent imprints and memories on the following hearts to cherish forever: His life partner Hallie Gardiner; his sister Tearia (Virginia) and sister-in-law Stephanie (California); brothers Kenny (Germany) and James (California); aunts Alfrieda and Theresa; uncles Malcolm, Jason, and William; nephews Miguel, Tyrone, Justin, and Ari; and a host of other family members, extended family, cousins, and so many friends. Quen was proceeded in transition by his mother Phyllis, maternal grandparents, and older brother Corey Davis.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Oh yes,
these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; HE SET ME FREE.

Acknowledgements

Our family would like to thank everyone for all acts of kindness and love shown during our time of bereavement. May God continue to bless
