Memories

Mummy

How can I tell the sun to stop shining?
How can I tell the moon
to stop glowing?
Better yet, How can I tell a flower to stop blooming?
It's impossible, I can't.
I can't stop time. But if I could, I would freeze the world to avoid telling you goodbye.
I would steal the wind to give you breath.
I would rob the earth to give you healthier flesh.
I would take all the pain so only happiness is left.
I know it's impossible, I can't.
But I held you through the pain.
I told you how beautiful you are in every way.
And I kept you so close our breathing was the same.
Possibly, I can keep moving with time because you're always close by.
I can look at the flower and see your smile when it's blooming.
I can look at the moon and see your love when it's glowing.
Nothing can stop you from shining Mummy.
And we will never be apart
because just like Poody, you're always in my heart.
Love – Your Baby Girl Tiara

Angela, I will miss you!

My heart has been left broken. Your memories will be my keepsake which will never depart. God has you in His arms and now with no more pain and suffering. I will always have you in my heart. As your twin, in my heart, in this lifetime, we will never be apart. I will miss you my twin! Again, I will always have you in my heart.

Love Your Twin –Vangela

Our link

A chain has many links and now one has been removed. But God has called you and left our heart bruised. We understand it all though! And this too shall pass. You have entered into another class. Rest on my sister, you are now with the Elites. Our heart is secure in Jesus as we lay down to sleep. We have no worries just knowing there is no more pain. Your wings you now have gained. Our link that has been removed, I will hold with me. Our bond and love we will always hold in our hearts very deep.

Love Stacy and Renee

My Beautiful Wife

Well, my love we did what the bible said - to death do us part; for better or worse; in sickness and in health, richer or poorer. But as you know, we were never poor, and as long as we both trusted and believed, we were always rich in the Lord.

You put up a great fight and we know that God is always the winner. He makes nothing but good moves and I thank Him for ending your pain. Now, you can rest. Thank you so much for loving me the way you did.

God blessed us with two beautiful girls who we both loved unconditionally. You know we were always there for each other through the ups and downs. I am missing you so much right now and I know in time things are going to be okay because we all have to travel this road in order to get where He is. Don't worry about me and Hoonk. We are going to okay. So, go ahead and rest. I will always love you!

The Obituary

Angela Suvette Walker was born on May 12, 1967, to Willie Sandifer Walker and Eunice Steen Walker. She departed this life on October 6, 2024, at Winona Manor.

Angela joined St. Peter M.B. Church at an early age and was a faithful member until her health failed. She attended and graduated from Mendenhall High School. In 1989, she was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Durwood Magee. To this union, two beautiful daughters were born.

Angela was one of the most loyal and dedicated managers at McDonald's during her 30-year tenure. During her employment, she often gave advice and encouraged the young men and women she met.

Angela will be remembered for her infectious smile. She was a fresh breath of air to meet. She always made others laugh with her jokes or comments with no filter but everyone loved her because there was always a laugh.

Angela leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Durwood Magee of Magee, Mississippi; one daughter, Tiara Makeha Magee of Magee, Mississippi; brothers, Willie Sandifer (Sheron) Walker, Jr., Darrell (Shawna) Walker, and Stacey (Renee) Walker, all of Magee, Mississippi; twin sister, Vangela Price of Magee, Mississippi, sisters, Deniece (Cedric) Donaldson of Clinton, Mississippi, Lisa (Larry) Blackwell, Shundra Keys, Monica Keys, and Jasmine Keys, all of Magee, Mississippi. She also leaves behind a bestie who was like a sister, Bobbie Jean Newsome and a host of nieces, and nephews.

Angela was preceded in death by her father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, and daughter, Myesha Magee.
