

"It is the greatest of all mistakes to do nothing because you can only do a little."

~ Sydney Smith

On the "Wings of Death"
The soul takes flight,
Into the land where
"There is no Night."
For those who believe
What the Savior said,
Will rise in Glory
Though they be dead.
So death comes to us
Just to "Open the door"
To the kingdom of God
And life Evermore.

FEBRUARY ONE

These four A & S envisioned and carried out the lunch counter sit-in of February 1, 1960, in downtown Greensboro. Their courageous act against social injustice and the resulting protests across the nation and is remembered as a defining moment in the struggle for civil rights.

Lettie Mae George, 83, passed away peacefully on April 19, 2019. She was born on February 13, 1936 in Bassett, Virginia to the late Roosevelt and Nannie Ruth Thomas. She was 1 of 11 children and was raised in a religious household based on the principles of the Primitive Baptist Church.

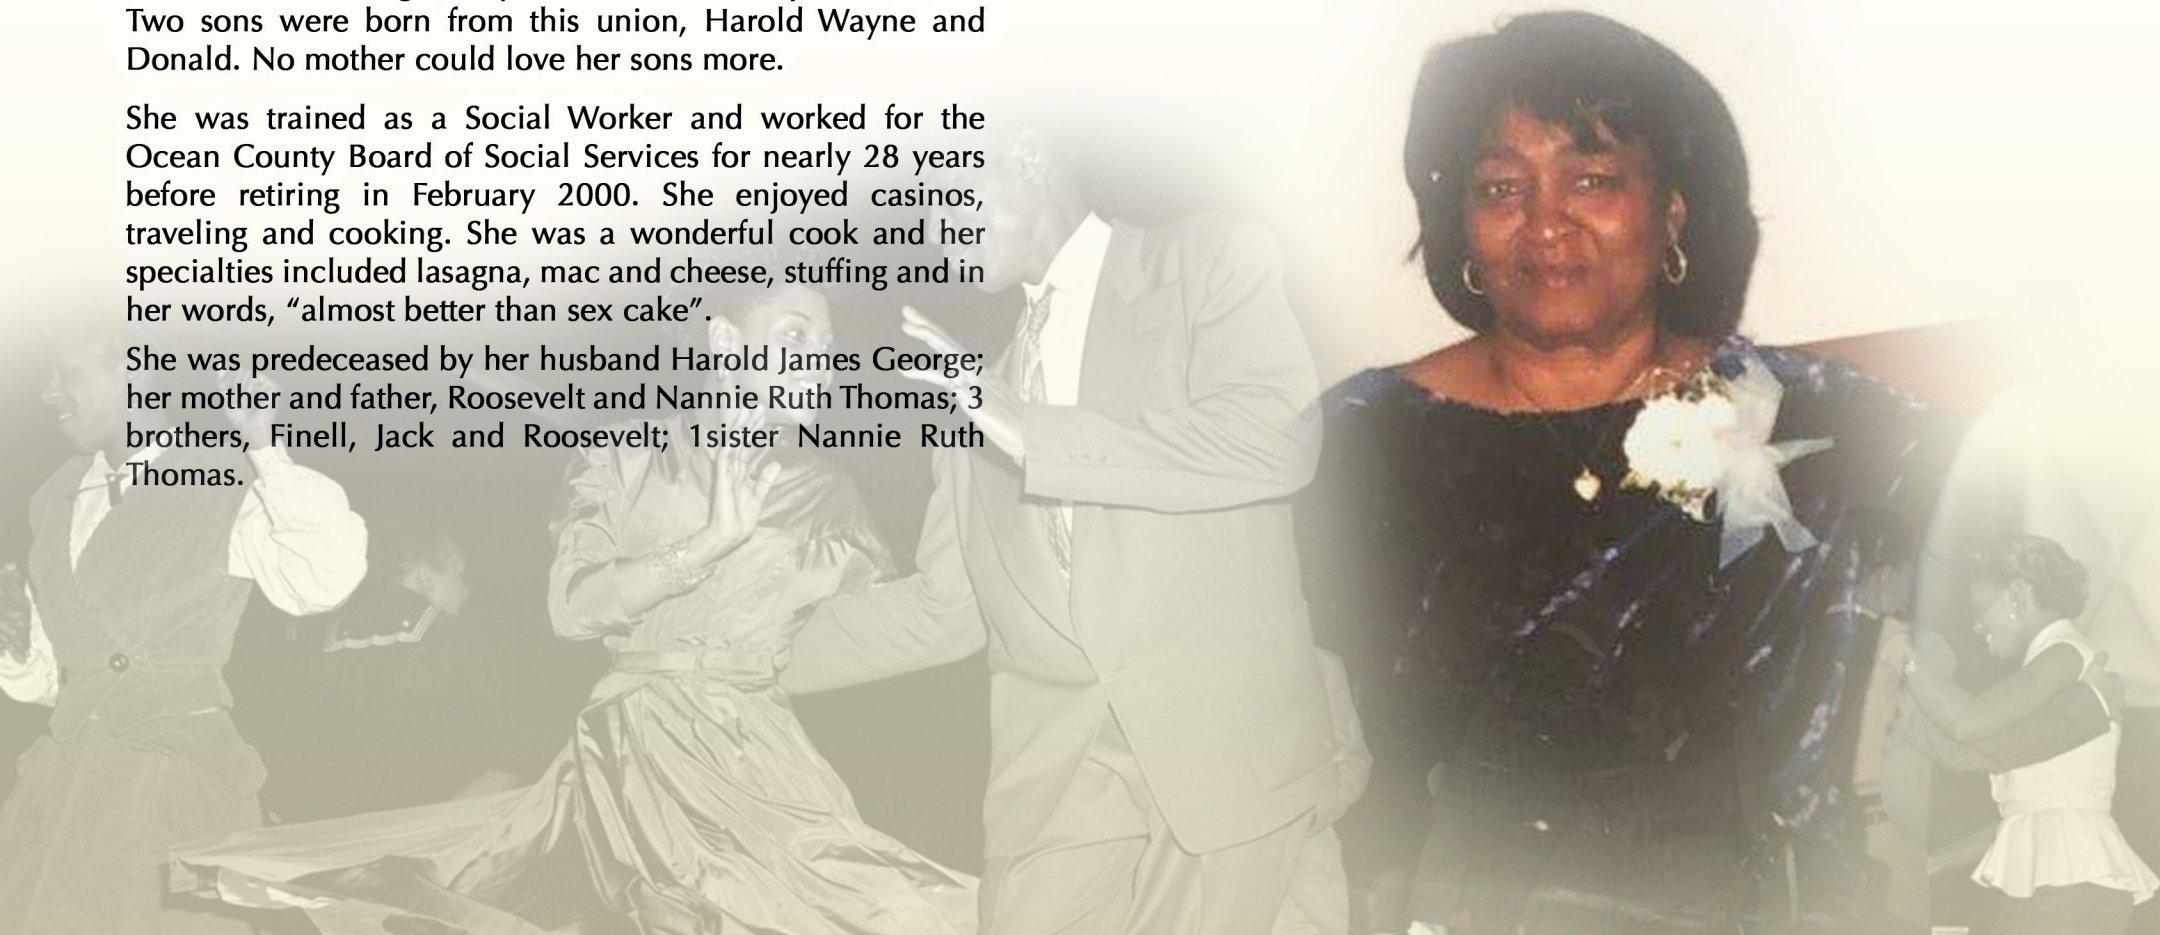

Our Mother was educated in the Henry County Virginia School system and graduated from George Washington Carver High School in Bassett, Virginia in 1953. She continued her education by attending North Carolina A&T in Greensboro, NC and graduated in 1957 with a degree in Commercial Education. Not only did she get a wonderful education at NC A&T, she also met the love of her life, Harold James George. They were married on April 13, 1958. Two sons were born from this union, Harold Wayne and Donald. No mother could love her sons more.

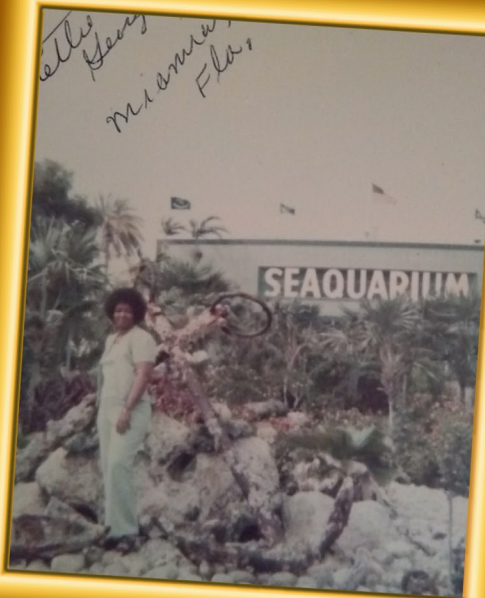

She was trained as a Social Worker and worked for the Ocean County Board of Social Services for nearly 28 years before retiring in February 2000. She enjoyed casinos, traveling and cooking. She was a wonderful cook and her specialties included lasagna, mac and cheese, stuffing and in her words, "almost better than sex cake".

She was predeceased by her husband Harold James George; her mother and father, Roosevelt and Nannie Ruth Thomas; 3 brothers, Finell, Jack and Roosevelt; 1 sister Nannie Ruth Thomas.

She is survived by 2 sons, Harold W. George (Katrina) of Trenton, NJ and Donald (Bridget) of Lakewood, NJ; 1 grandson, Aaron of Trenton, NJ; 2 sisters, Berniece Thomas of Bassett, VA and Janet Thomas of Lithonia, Georgia; 3 brothers, Eddie Thomas of Bassett, VA, Uthel Thomas of Fieldale, VA and Johnny Thomas (Joan) of Bassett, VA; special friend/daughter Ileana Lusker and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course
I have kept the faith.
