

Reflections of Her Life

Lisa Latoya Jones entered this world on September 24, 1980. She was the only daughter born to Charles and Eliza Taylor Jones. She was a feisty little five-pound bundle of joy. She entered into eternal rest on June 28, 2026.

She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior and was baptized at New Light Beulah Baptist Church. Lisa was a member of the Young Adult Ministry, NLBBC Praise dancers, choir, and a regular attendee at midday Bible Study. She found great comfort being at church in her latter days.

Lisa graduated from Lower Richland High School in 1998. A proud Diamond Hornet, she attended every homecoming celebration with her classmates. After high school, she enrolled at the University of South Carolina, where she majored in Accounting.

Lisa was employed by Blue Cross Blue Shield of South Carolina as a Health Insurance Claims Coordinator.

She is survived by her three children, Corbin Tyler Jones, Aliyah Riley, and Kiona Riley; her mother, Eliza Taylor Jones; her brothers, Pelvis G. Taylor, Charles U. Jones Jr, and Timothy Jones; a goddaughter, Zaria Jackson; a special friend, Jamie Miller Sr.; and aunts, uncles, cousins, and dear friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, Charles U. Jones Sr.

Stopping Place

Life is but a stopping place,

A pause in what's to be,

A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,

Different paths along the way,

We all were meant to learn some things,

but never meant to stay

Our destination is a place,

Far greater than we know.

For some the journey's quicker,

For some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends,

We'll claim a great reward,

And find an everlasting peace,

Together with the Lord.
