Obituary

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing." Psalms 100:1-2

We celebrate the life and memory of Doris Knight. She was born in Chatham County, Georgia on November 18, 1940 and was the oldest daughter of the late Carrie Lee Owens-Thomas and Ned Badger. She transitioned on Saturday, July 19, 2025. She was educated in the Chatham County public school system. Doris was kind with a compassionate heart and a willingness to lend a helping hand.

Doris was a dedicated employee in the Chatham County School System for over 27 years retiring with honors and accolades from her final post at Haven Elementary School in 2004. She spent many years as an active and working member of St. Mary's Missionary Baptist Church serving on the usher board. Later in life she joined Kingdom Life Christian Fellowship where she enjoyed the monthly Senior Bible Study and was a super fan of Antwan Smalls, leader of the praise and worship service.

Doris was the mother of nine children and was married to the late Apostle Gordon Knight. She was preceded in death by her parents, younger sister, Elise Williamson, and two sons, Donnell Knight (Gwendolyn), and Alvin Knight (Algenia).

She leaves to cherish her memory: daughters, Iris Knight, Barbara Mitchell, Gloria Dorsey, Carolyn Mikell, Elder Sheila Lowe (Pastor Donald Lowe), Lisa Knight, LaTora Knight; her paternal uncle, Willie Lee Smith (Carolyn); one sister-in-law, Janie Knight and lifelong best friend since childhood Mary Jane "Chumpy" Jefferson; and a host of grand-children, great grand-children, nieces, cousins, family members and friends.

If you knew Miss. Doris as so many affectionately addressed her, you know that she loved GOOD people and the others she would roll her eyes behind them and might leave with a biting comment. You might also know she loved her seafood, especially a blue crab. She was a fan of silly comedy movies, especially Madea and she could watch TBN, Joel Olstein, T.D. Jakes or anyone with a good word from God, day and night. She was only a little vain and certainly appreciated a new outfit, a trip the nail salon and a nice pair of shoes.

Doris will be remembered as a loving mother, committed to family, active and funny with a love for life. Anyone can tell you she was curious, talkative and witty and will be missed by us all.
