

OBITUARY

Maxie Ola Bagby, a beloved figure in her community, passed away peacefully on May 10, 2025, in Burleson, Texas. Born on June 29, 1937, in Prescott, Arkansas, she led a life filled with love, compassion, and generosity, nurturing all those around her.

Maxie was a devoted wife to Donald C. Bagby, with whom she shared many cherished moments. Together, they created a warm and inviting home that welcomed friends and family alike. As a mother, she embraced her role wholeheartedly. Known for her culinary talents, Maxie was a great cook who delighted in preparing meals that brought joy to family gatherings. Her love for the outdoors was evident in her beautiful yard and the vibrant flowers that adorned her garden, a testament to her green thumb and passion for nurturing plants.

A lifelong Christian, Maxie lived her faith through her actions, embodying a spirit of kindness and compassion. She had an innate ability to make everyone feel special and loved, often referred to as a "mother to all" by those who were fortunate enough to know her.

She is survived by her husband, Donald C Bagby; her son, Gregory J. Bagby, and wife, Misty; grandson, Timothy J. Bagby, wife, Rica; three grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

Maxie is preceded in death by her parents, Clifton Monroe Beville and Hattie Mae Rhodes Beville; and son, Clifton Clayton Bagby.

Maxie Bagby's legacy of love, nurturing, and faith will leave an indelible mark on all whose lives she touched, and she will be dearly missed by family and friends.

As I Must Leave You

*As I must leave you
For a little while,
Please go on bravely
With a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things
The same-
Spend not your life in empty days,
But fill each waking hour
In useful ways-
Reach out your hand
In comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you
And hold you near.*
