CELEBRATION OF LIFE

Willie Pearl Hammonds affectionately known as “Bill” was born on November 3, 1936, in Covington, Georgia, to the late Robert Lee and Annie Pearl Hammonds. She was the first of eight children and was preceded in death by Clayton Hammonds, Johnnie May Floyd, Rosco Hammonds, U.C. Price and Tommy Lee Livingston.

Willie Pearl received her education in Covington, Georgia, and in 1953 became the proud mother of her only child, Willie Joe McKibben. One of her proudest moments came in 2009, when she witnessed the election of the first Black President of the United States.

On January 12, 2026, Willie Pearl peacefully went home to be with the Lord. She was one of the longest-living members of Love & Hugs Christian Tabernacle, where she served faithfully for over twenty-five years until her health declined. In September, she moved in with her son, Willie, and his wife, Phyllis, where the family cherished the time spent caring for her. Pearl was employed for more than twenty-five years by Rob and Susanne Boza, along with Sue Henderson.

She loved cooking and baking, especially her well-known cream cheese pound cakes. She enjoyed collecting angels, working crossword puzzles, and spending time with her beloved Aunt Mary Sue. She also cherished her close friendship with Irene.

Willie Pearl leaves to cherish her memory her son, Willie Joe (Phyllis) McKibben; brothers, Robert (Irene) Hammonds and Marion Hammonds; sisters, Willie Nell (Wayne) Germany and Sherry Ann (Chuck) Reed; grandchildren, Jovia, Brandon, and Camille; three great-grandchildren, D’Mario, Dominin, and D’Ziarie; two dear close friends, Irene (Chick) Moses and Patricia (Rere) Hunt; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
