

*Surrounded by Bibles spread before me
On my desk, to search and read,
'Tis God, not I, who would explore me,
For opened heart to follow his lead.*

*For class and sermon I prepare,
To speak God's word to those who'd hear;
But he invites me first to prayer,
To walk with him in quiet fear.*

*Oh, Lord, to hear you now I seek,
Give me a saving word to say;
Let content weigh above technique
And mercy more than smart display.*

*Before the church hears what I know,
Lord, let them see how much I care;
And this, for them, is what I owe,
To take up Jesus' cross to bear.*

*Lord, let me seek not theirs, but them,
And from them lift the heavy weight:
To show forgiveness, and not condemn,
And usher them inside your gate.*
