

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you made a comforting call or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a card or dish of food if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words any friend could say, or perhaps you were not there at all but thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so very much. Please continue to keep our family in your prayers!

On Death

Then Almitra spoke, saying, We would ask now of Death. And he said: You would know the secret of death. But how shall you find it unless you seek it in the heart of life? The owl whose night-bound eyes are blind unto the day cannot unveil the mystery of light. If you would indeed behold the spirit of death, open your heart wide unto the body of life. For life and death are one, even as the river and the sea are one.

In the depth of your hopes and desires lies your silent knowledge of the beyond; And like seeds dreaming beneath the snow your heart dreams of spring. Trust the dreams, for in them is hidden the gate to eternity. Your fear of death is but the trembling of the shepherd when he stands before the king whose hand is to be laid upon him in honour. Is the shepherd not joyful beneath his trembling, that he shall wear the mark of the king. Yet is he not more mindful of his trembling?

For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun?
And what is it to cease breathing, but to free the breath from its restless tides, that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?

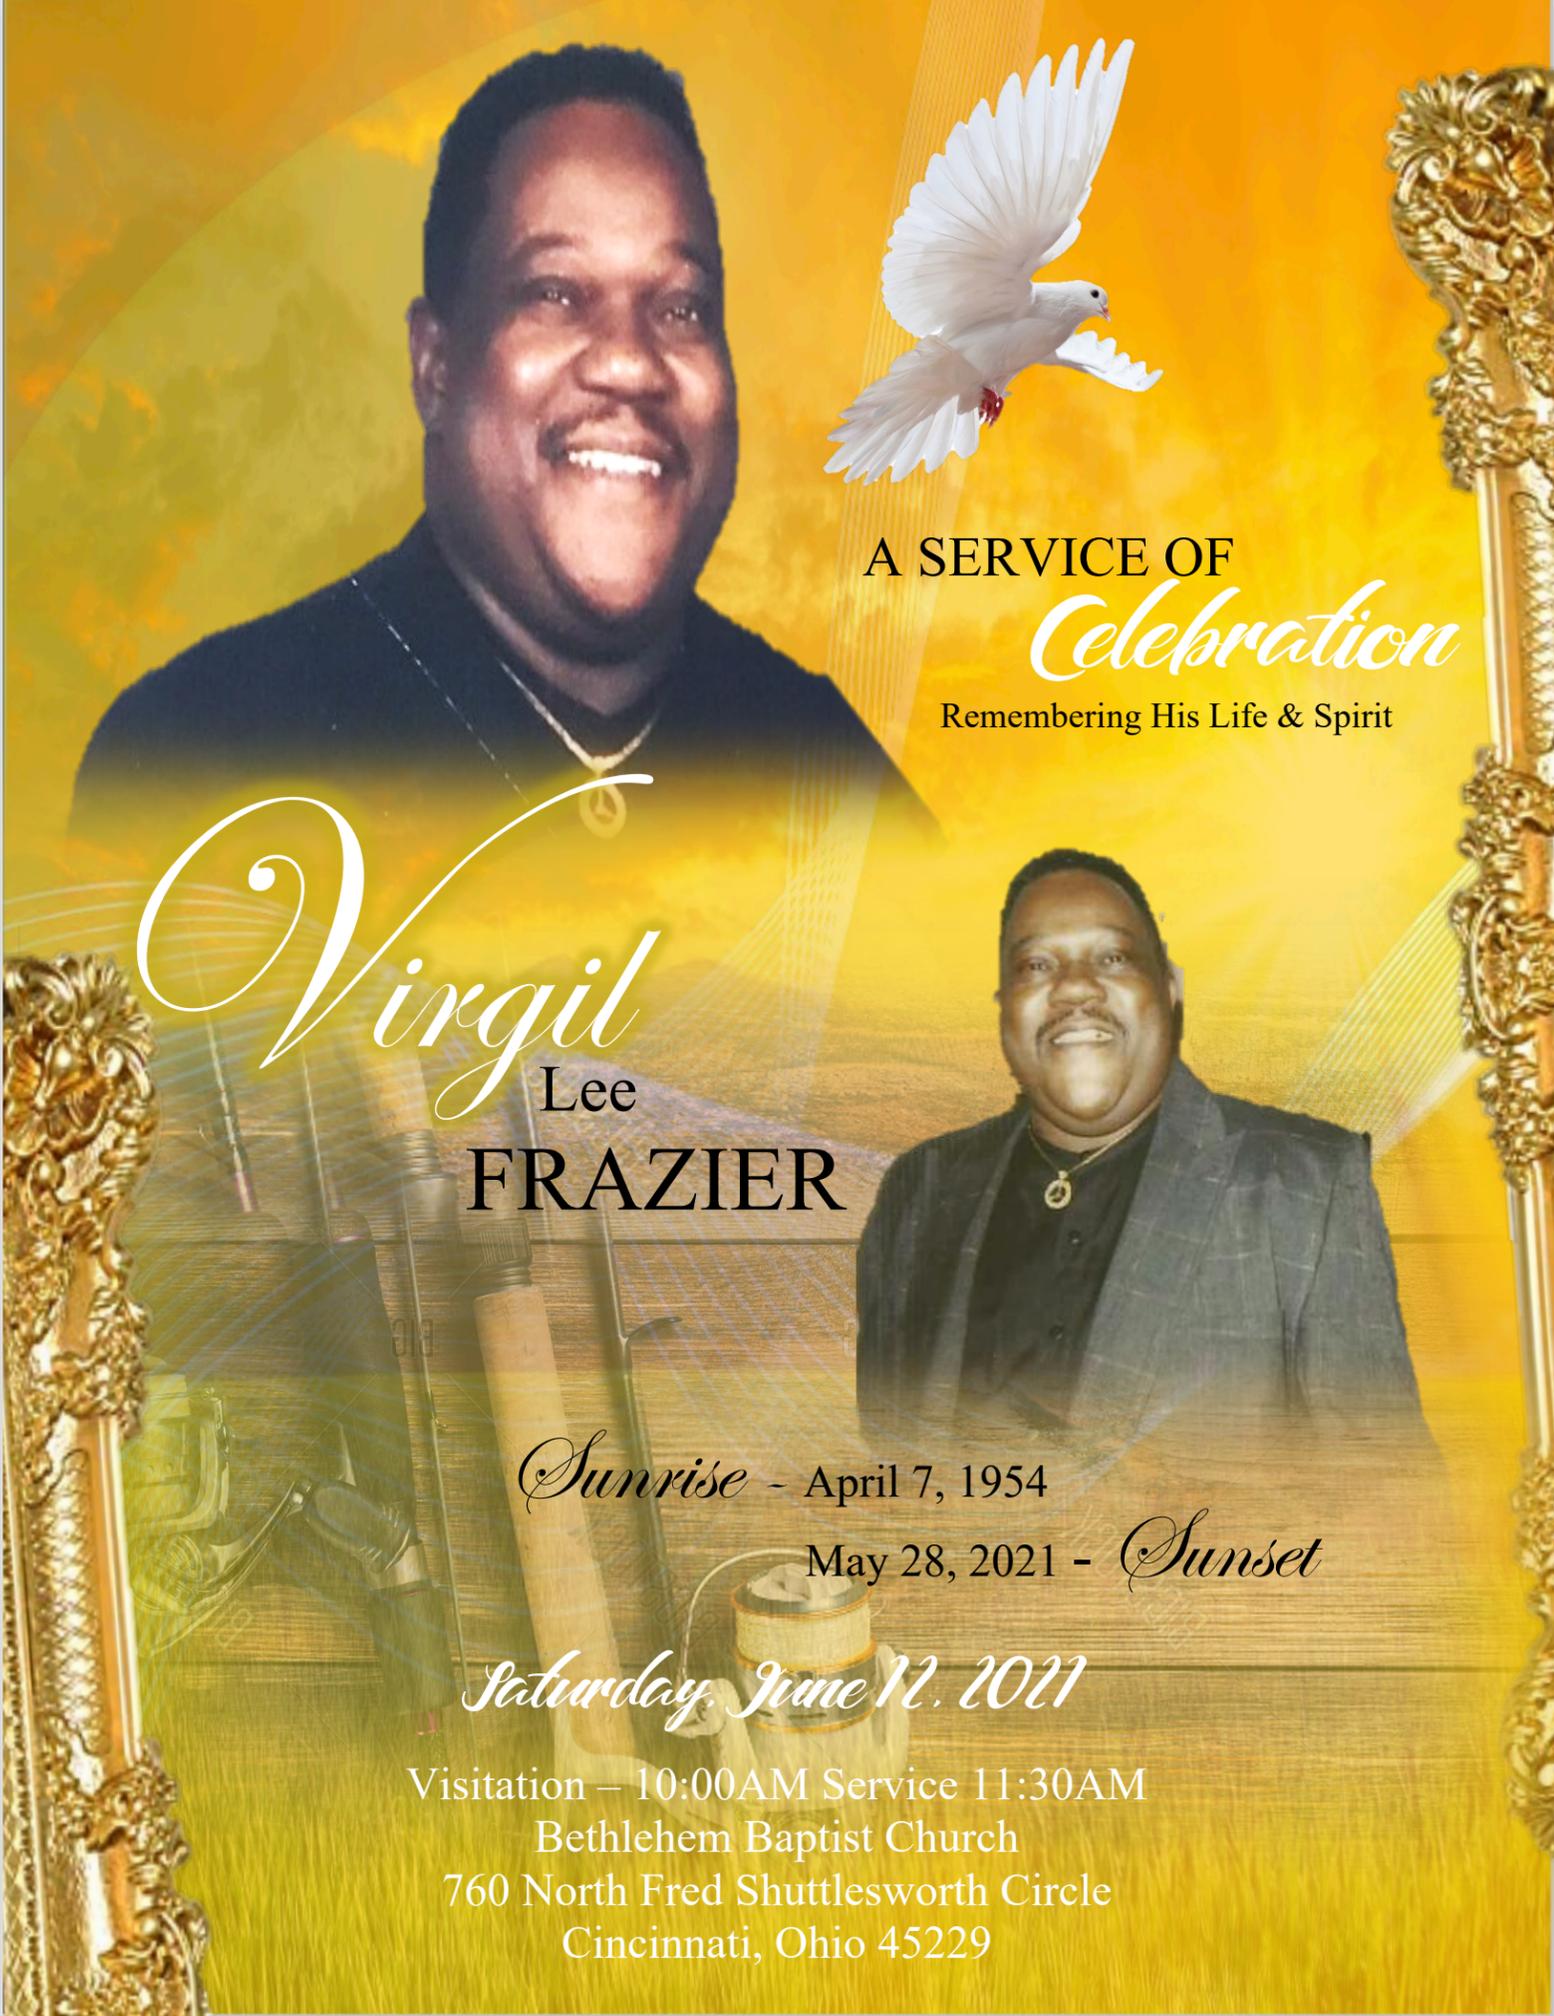

Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing.
And when you have reached the mountain top, then you shall begin to climb.
And when the earth shall claim your limbs, then shall you truly dance.

His Life's Story

Virgil Lee Frazier was born in Cincinnati, Ohio to Betty Allen and the late Joseph Frazier on April 7, 1954. On that day he brought sunshine into their lives with his smile. Virgil loved the Lord and accepted Christ into his life at an early age. Virgil departed this earthly life on the morning of May 28, 2021, at approximately 8:45 am.

Virgil loved his mother and built a special bond with her. Virgil loved his sisters, Delories Frazier and Cheryl Sakhi. He was the brother that was not afraid to try anything. Virgil graduated from Statesboro High School in 1973 and obtained an Associate Degree from Xavier University. He went on to become a Black-owned business entrepreneur. Although Virgil was born in Cincinnati the country was always his heart. He loved traveling with his uncle and friend James Roberson Jr. He also enjoyed fishing with his aunt, sister, and friend Diane Reed. They both shared a special bond. In addition to fishing, he enjoyed playing pool and spending time with his grandchildren. He made every effort to enjoy the time he had with those he loved. He loved spending time with people and always enjoyed a good conversation. His smile would change the atmosphere in the room, his laugh would make you laugh along with him, and seeing his face would let you know everything would be alright.

Virgil shared over 30 years with his lifelong partner Elaine Johnson. All his children had a special place in his heart. He was a good father to his daughters Shay Frazier, Aesha Frazier, Pamela Sherrer (stepdaughter), and sons Tyrone Frazier (deceased), Andre Lamar Frazier, and Damion Johnson (step-son). He became a father figure to so many others like his nieces and nephews Kenya Jordan, Lamar Haley, Kaniya Squire, and Grace Frazier. His presence made everyone feel as if they were family.

Virgil leaves to cherish his memory: his loving partner Elaine Johnson; his loving mother Betty Allen, his sons Tyrone Frazier (proceed in death), Andre Lamar Frazier, Damion Johnson, and his daughters Shay Frazier, Aesha Frazier, and Pamela Sherrer, his grandchildren Tyala Frazier (deceased) Anthony Frazier, Caleah Frazier, Tyrone Blake Frazier, Angle Frazier, Daryl Darrell Westbrook Jr, A'Dreya Frazier, five aunts, four uncles, three special cousins Linda Lowry, Mary Jane Coleman, Sally Roberson and a host of loving family and friends.

*God saw the road was getting rough, The hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed those weary eyes and whispered, "Peace Be Thine."
The weary hours, the days of pain, the sleepless nights have passed.
The ever patient worn out frame, has found sweet peace at last.*
