HER FAVORITE Scripture

1. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
2. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
3. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
4. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
5. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
6. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Celebrating Her Life

Beverly Ann Johnson was born on September 24, 1958, in Cleveland, Ohio, to the late parents, Carl E. Johnson and Barbra Johnson (a.k.a. Bobbie). Her family roots reign from Texas, with a Native American and African American heritage. Beverly grew up with her three brothers and after losing their mother at a very young age, she played the dual role of sister and mother and played it very well. She graduated in 1977 from East High and worked in several industries including production, hospitality, and retail. She also specialized in sewing and textile work for the Army. Beverly was a master seamstress, she started sewing at the age of 12. Her talent succeeded in contributing to many people's special days including proms, weddings, parties and praise dancers. Beverly was known for always having encouraging and kind words to family, friends and passing strangers. She spoke LIFE over people. Anyone that met her was going to hear about Jesus and walk away knowing that they were special. She was always bearing gifts and passing them out at functions and at her church, where she was addressed as, "Mother Beverly." She would help struggling people with groceries and single mothers with supplies for their homes. If you liked something, she would give it to you, that simple.

She loved to cook, shop, decorate, listen to music, and spend time with her grandchildren. She secretly had a beautiful singing voice that she rarely showcased. She loved fashion and was a natural beauty that beamed from her smile and laugh.

A Woman of PRAYER

Mother Beverly was a prophetic and anointed prayer warrior, praying for many on the altar at her church and neighborhood. Even after losing her ability to walk, she would ride her scooter to certain nursing home residents to pray for them. She will always be known as an optimistic enthusiast that fought a good fight and never gave up, until God took her home. She lived an unselfish life and sacrificed many things for others, even if she barely knew them. She will be heavily missed by her family, friends, community and all of those who encountered her.

There will never be another
like the one we knew.

She was survived by four sons, Marcellus (Tawana) Wills, Darion (Rachel) Johnson, Larry Ja'ron (Jessica) Johnson and Bobby Johnson; 11 grandchildren, Marcellus, Angelia, Julianna, Don Ja'raun, Jaiden, Darion, Dareon, Ribbon, Gregory, Ricardo and TreVion; four siblings, Steve, Michael, Carl, and Cynthia. Lastly, a huge family of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws and friends.

CLOSING REMARKS

Beloved, one thing is for certain, Mother Beverly would have wanted you to give your life to Jesus Christ while you still can.

Don't waste another day without submitting to Father. The Bible tells us in ROMANS 3:23 that all have sinned and come short of the glory of God.

Good works cannot save you, and going to church cannot save you. True salvation is a free gift bought by the precious blood of Jesus Christ on Calvary.

Right now, the Holy Spirit is calling you to salvation. The Lord is willing to forgive you of your sins and has already paid the price on the cross.

On the Day of Pentecost, when the people asked what they must do to be saved, the Apostle Peter gave them the blueprint in Acts 2:38

"Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost."
