ARRANGEMENTS BY
Mundwiler Funeral Home
Milbank, South Dakota

You can shed tears that she is gone,
Or you can smile because she lived,
You can close your eyes & pray that she will come back,
Or you can open your eyes
and see all that she has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be FULL OF LOVE that you shared,
You can turn your back on tomorrow
and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow
because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can CHERISH HER MEMORY
and let it live on,
You can cry and close your mind be empty
and turn your back,
Or you can do what she would want;
smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

In Loving Memory Of

*K*aren Eileen Sime was born on March 26, 1945, in Watertown, SD, to Arthur and Ina (Harkins) Amundson. The family lived in several places in southern Minnesota before moving to Reville, SD. Karen attended her last couple years of high school in Reville and graduated with the Class of 1963.

On November 6, 1964, Karen was united in marriage with Bruce Neal Sime. Together, they were blessed with two sons: Jeffrey and Trent. Karen was a dedicated farm wife, helping with farm work, keeping her home, and raising her boys. She also did odd jobs in the community such as sewing and mending garments.

Karen was a gifted seamstress, liked going shopping, loved rummage sales, and enjoyed going out to eat. She loved animals, especially cats and dogs. Karen was a huge supporter of the Watertown Salvation Army and the Reville Fire Department.

Karen is survived by her sons: Jeffrey (Joan) Sime of Watertown, SD; and Trent Sime of Watertown, SD; grandsons: Tucker Sime and Carter Sime; step-grandchildren: MacKenzie (Brandon) Evjen and Hunter Skorczewski; and step-great-grandsons: Hudson and Holden Evjen; daughter-in-law, Gail Sime; sister, Kathy Grensberg of Parker, SD; special niece, Debbie Toth Tarnowski of Kranzberg, SD; along with many extended family and friends.

Preceding her in death are her parents; husband, Bruce Sime in 2020; and sister, Janet Clark.
