

Acknowledgement

On behalf of our family, we would like to thank those that came to join and celebrate the life of John Alvin Choice. May the memories we shared with him be long lasting and forever in our hearts.

"Not, How Did He Die, But How Did He Live?"
by Unknown

Not, how did he die, but how did he live?
Not, what did he gain, but what did he give?
These are the units to measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of his birth.
Nor what was his church, nor what was his creed?
But had he befriended those really in need?
Was he ever ready, with words of good cheer,
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?
Not what did the sketch in the newspaper say,
But how many were sorry when he passed away?

Life Reflections

John Alvin Choice was born to Nella Choice Williams on April 4, 2025. He was born in Gilmer, Texas where he spent some time in Gilmer School District. He also attended Longview Independent School District. John was most known for his comedic comments and witty personality. He loved music and to dance when enjoying family and friends. You would never catch him without his gold jewelry. In his adult years John was a dedicated employer of Norris Cylinder for 20+ years. He was a loyal Dallas Cowboys fan. So much so he had a Dallas Cowboys room in his home. He did not miss a game. John was the eldest of 6 children. Leaving behind his sister Tamara Williams, and Sherlyn Williams. Brothers Kevin Williams, and Eddie Derrick. His mother Nella Williams. Aunt Joann Jones. Children Ja'Vonte, Denarrian, and Diamond. Lifelong friend Danny Taylor and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Proceeding him in death are his sisters Jacquelyn Kaye Derrick and Ophelia Derrick, as well as step-father Lovie Williams.
