

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
WINSTON PIERRE

FOREVER IN OUR HEARTS

Sunrise: 08/08/1950

Sunset: 07/21/2025

SATURDAY JUNE 26, 2025

VISITATION 11:00AM | SERVICE 12:AM | REPASS 1-2PM

Gasch's Funeral Home

4739 Baltimore Avenue., Hyattsville, MD 20781

ORDER OF SERVICE

Musical Interlude

Opening Sentences: Reverend Charles Robinson

All stand while the following anthem is said
I am the resurrection and the life, saith the lord.
He that believeth in me, though he were dead,
yet shall he live,
and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

I know that my redeemer liveth,
And that he shall stand at the latter day upon
the earth.

And though this body be destroyed, yet shall I see God.

Whom I shall see for myself and mine eyes shall behold, and not be a stranger.

For none of us liveth to himself,

And no man dieth to himself,

For if we live, we live unto the Lord. And if we die,
we die unto the Lord.

Whether we live, therefore, or die, we are of the Lord's

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.

Even so saith the Spirit, for they rest from their labors

Welcome

Hymn of Comfort: The Lord's Prayer -Ann Gordon

First Reading-: Psalm 23: Marissa Thompson

The Lord is my shepherd

I shall not want

He Maketh me to lie down in green pastures

He leadeth me beside the still waters

He restoreth my soul

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his Name's sake

Yea, though I walk through the valley of death,

I will fear no evil

For thou art with me ,

Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me,

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of
mine enemies

Thou annoint my head with oil

My cup runneth over

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Amen

Second Reading: John 14:1-6:Hakeem Jones

Jesus said, Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions, if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself, and where I am , there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas said unto him, Lord, we know not wither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus said unto him, I am the way , the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father , but by me.

The word of the Lord

Eulogy: Kojo Nnamdi

Tribute: Ann Mitchell

Message of Hope: Reverend Charles Robinson

Closing Hymn: Amazing Grace-Ann Gordon

The Blessing: Reverend Charles Robinson

The God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight and the blessing of God almighty, the Father, the Son, and the holy Ghost be amongst you and remain with you always.

Amen

Recessional:

REPASS IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING – Gasch's Funeral Home

OBITUARY

Winston Oswald Pierre also known as "Lax" "was born on August 8th, 1950, in Trinidad and Tobago, to Irene and Eugene Pierre. He was the youngest of his other siblings John, Phyllis, Gertrude, who are all deceased.

Winston attended high school in Trinidad before migrating to the United States. He lived in Philadelphia with his sister Phyllis and his niece Ann before moving to Washington, D.C. where he attended the University of the District of Columbia. He was known for his boundless generosity and his kind spirit amongst his peers. Winston was always ready to lend a hand to those in need, often going out of his way to help friends, family and even strangers. Winston was a sports enthusiast. He enjoyed playing soccer, watching tennis, and loved doing his daily workouts at the gym.

Winston enlisted in the army and upon leaving the army he worked at the Bureau of Engraving and the Social Security Administration. However, his fascination with television led him to pursue a career in the television industry which he began at the Howard University Television Station (WHUT) and stayed until his retirement.

Throughout his life, Winston had a profound impact on everyone he met. He was a cherished member of his community. He loved playing the steel pan, (the national instrument of Trinidad and Tobago). His passion for playing the steelpan led him to participate in many cultural activities in the DMV area. Winston's passion for enjoying life brought joy to those around him. He loved the outdoors, just sitting in the sunlight appreciating and enjoying nature or going swimming at local indoor pools.

Winston's sudden illness resulted in his admission to the VA medical hospital in Washington DC where he was in the care of an esteemed medical team until his passing.

The family would like to thank the entire medical team and all who visited with him to offer their prayers and support during his illness.

He is survived by the Thompson Family, the Jackson Family and the Gordon Family. His legacy of kindness and generosity will live on in the countless hearts of those he touched.

WINSTON OSWALD PIERRE
WILL BE LOVINGLY REMEMBERED BY:
THE THOMPSON FAMILY
JACKSON FAMILY
GORDON FAMILY

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:

The family would like to give sincere thanks and appreciation to all those who extended their kind words and gestures during our time of bereavement.