

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters;
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake...
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over...
surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever.....*

Following his discharge from his service, he took on a job with AT&T that would become his career while also obtaining an Associates Degree from Amarillo College. He served everywhere within the company from a Lineman to an Estimate Assigner and everything in between. He enjoyed reading and would go through several books at a time.

Jim is preceded in death by his parents. Those left to cherish his memories are his daughter, Terri Wright and husband Terry, son, Troy McMahan and wife Kristin, grandchildren, Kristen Otis and husband Butler, Shelby Gockel and husband Christian, and Ashley Clark and husband Jackson, as well as his great-grandchildren Quint, Jenson, and Hattie Jo.
