

Husband,

if I could write a story, it would be the greatest ever told, of a kind and loving husband who had a heart of gold. I could write a million pages, but there's one thing I would say: just how much I love and miss you every single day. You were a firm foundation through all the storms of life, a sturdy hand to hold onto in times of stress and strife, a true friend I could turn to in times of good and bad, one of life's greatest blessings the best husband I could have had.

Your Lovely Wife

"He carried the weight of the world so his children could walk lighter, and he loved us with every day of his life. His hands were shaped by hard work, his heart by love, and his life by devotion to his family."

- Tyrell

What up doe Bro, 40 plus years no more tears from me no more pain for you. We went through so much together and apart, but distance never scarred our bond just tested it and we prevailed. The bulldogs from the hood, mentally and physically tougher than most, succeeded where most people would have failed. 40 plus years no more tears from me, no more pain for you. The Creator got you, Bro and you will be missed Dearly but your Spirit, determination and grit was undeniable to the end. We go back over 40 years Bro no more tears from me no more pain for you.

Love,
Your Brother D Knotts, Baby D, D

You were my cousin, more like a brother. You taught me so much at a young age about being an entrepreneur and family first. I'm forever grateful. So many firsts were with you, traveling, music, videos, and family time was always a good time, just great memories I will hold dearly to my heart. Hug our family in heaven and watch over your family down here. Love you forever, your sis/cousin Isiha...but you would say esha my baby in that raspy voice with that big smile) Rest well, cousin. Job well done.

Love,
Isiha
