Bonnie -

Although your days in a Plainsmen Girls Basketball uniform are long gone -- you'll always be a part of our "Plainsmen family."

And as such, a tradition we have is making each other friendship bracelets. We hope when you see it, it'll remind you of your mom's all the love & support "back home."

JPR - your mom's initials

blue beads (groups of 4) - for the time she loved under a wide open sky & for the 4 Porter sisters

gold beads - for your mom's love of sunflowers (& in groups for 2 for you and Charlie)

Once a Plainsmen, always a Plainsmen. We love you.

- Coach Bishop
& the Plainsmen GBB Team

Donna & Mike

Growing up, my sisters and I enjoyed making friendship pins and bracelets. Although this is a silly, little trinket, I thought it seemed fitting that Pam, Gailya & Donna share a similar "Porter Sisters" bracelet.

- PJGD - forever sisters
- black & silver - Wheatland High School
- black beads (in groups of 4) - for the four girls
- silver beads (in groups of 2) - for your loving parents

Thanks be to God for His undescrivable gift -- and hope for our future. We love you & are praying for all of you.

A wicker horse sculpture made of light-colored twigs, positioned in the upper background of the image. It is supported by a green metal stand. To the left, there are some green plants. The background also shows a wooden door and a wooden table.

As I walk through this wicked world
Searchin' for light in the darkness of insanity
I ask myself, "Is all hope lost?
Is there only pain and hatred and misery?"
And each time I feel like this inside
There's one thing I wanna know
What's so funny 'bout peace, love and understanding?

And as I walk on through troubled times
My spirit gets so downhearted sometimes
So where are the strong, and who are the trusted?
And where is the harmony, sweet harmony?
'Cause each time I feel it slippin' away, just makes me wanna cry
What's so funny 'bout peace, love and understanding?
