

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered Joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life has been full, I've savored much Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me FREE!

Steven Douglas Schultz was born on October 2, 1967, in Ortonville, MN. He was the son of Martin Walter Schultz and Jessie Irene (Fosher) Schultz. Steven lived in the Big Stone City area. He was born with Down Syndrome and lived in care facilities in Vermillion, Redfield, and most recently in Watertown.

Steven loved the Disney movies and characters. He enjoyed having blankets, shirts, and stuffed toys with Disney characters on them. He enjoyed music and loved to go to McDonald's for a meal. He especially loved airplanes and airports.

Steven Schultz is survived by his siblings: Michael Schultz of Brainerd, MN; Barbara Swenson of Brainerd, MN; Donna (Dennis) Lindholm of Graceville, MN; and Linda Schmidt of Brainerd, MN. He was preceded in death by his parents: Martin and Jessie Schultz; and his sister and brother-in-law: Marva and Kenneth Carr.

Birds in Flight symbolized the end of a Christian life. One bird is shown leaving the flock and "going home" to his final reward. The remaining birds continue their journey through life with peace of mind, knowing their last loved one is now in God's hands.
