Life Reflections GLADYS TUCK

On June 10, 1951, a beautiful baby girl was born to the parents of Minnie Lee Taylor and Henry Davis. Gladys, a lifelong resident of Mineola, Texas attended McFarland High School and graduated from Mineola High School in 1969. In 1967, she married Cecil Sim Tuck, Jr. where four children were born to this union.

Gladys was a faithful member of St. Paul Missionary Baptist Church where she served as a deaconess, member of Sanctuary Choir, and member of the Willing Workers Circle. She also served as a member of the St. Paul Usher Board. Gladys later joined New Life Baptist Fellowship Church.

Gladys was employed for over 20 years at American Recreation. She worked at Wal-Mart, Goodwill Industries, and Home Health. In her leisure time she enjoyed reading, sewing, watching TV, and spending time with her grandchildren.

Forever Our Grandma

We didn't know that morning
God would call you home,
We only knew we loved you
And never wanted you to go.
You were more than just our Grandma,
You were our comfort, our home,
A loving heart, a gentle smile,
A place we'd never feel alone.
You gave us so many memories,
So many moments we'll hold dear,
Your laughter, hugs, and loving words
Will stay with us throughout the years.
You watched us grow from little ones,
And loved us every step of the way.
You taught us how to love and care,
And gave us strength for every day.
Though our hearts are broken now,
We know your love will never end.
We'll carry you inside our hearts
Until we meet with you again.
We'll talk about you, smile for you,
And remember all you gave.
Your love will live forever
In every life you helped to shape.
So rest peacefully, dear Grandma,
Your work on Earth is through.
Thank you for every hug and kiss,
For every little thing you'd do.
We love you more than words can say,
And we'll miss you every day.
But your love will be our guiding light
Until we meet again someday.

Forever and always,
Your Grandchildren

Recessional

Of all the special gifts in life
However great or small,
To have you as my Wife
Was the greatest gift of all.
May the winds of love
blow softly
And whisper in your ear
“We love and miss you
And wish that you were here”
Deep in our hearts, your life is kept to love and cherish,
Not forget. No more
tomorrows we can share
But yesterdays are always there.
A silent thought,
a secret tear
Keeps your memory ever near
In our hearts forever.
~Love Cecil

Miss You Mom

The world keeps turning, seasons change,
Yet nothing feel the same.
Every sunrise gently whispers
Your beautiful, cherished name.
I miss your smile, your gentle touch
The comfort of your warm embrace.
No matter where this life may lead,
Nothing can ever take your place.
I see you in the morning light
I hear you in the evening breeze.
Your love still lives within my heart
Bringing comfort, hope, and peace.
Though heaven now holds you close
Your memory never fades away
I'll carry your love within my soul
To guide me every day.
I miss you, Mom, more than words can say
Until we're together once again,
You'll always be forever loved,
Forever cherished..... My dearest friend.
~Love, Kendra, Victoria, Marsha
