ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The family of Tiara Monique Parker would like to thank everyone for their acts of kindness. Whether you called, visited, gave monetary gifts, other gifts/food, and prayers, your actions did not go unnoticed and will forever be in our hearts. May God Bless and keep each of you!

God Saw You...

God saw you getting tired, when a cure was not to be. So, He wrapped His arms around you, and whispered, "Come to me." You didn't deserve what you went through, so He gave you a rest. God's garden must be beautiful, for He only takes the best. And when I saw you sleeping, so peaceful and free from pain, I could not wish you back, to suffer that again.

TIARA

MONIQUE
Parker A.K.A.
"T-T"

Tiara Monique Parker, affectionately known as, "T-T", age 36, was born on April 1, 1989, in Kansas City, Missouri to Gregory James Hill and Terrie Lynn Parker. She was the first born of a precious set of twins.

Tiara grew up in Kansas City, Missouri and graduated from DeLaSalle Charter High School, with an academic scholarship. After high school she attended two years at Metropolitan Community College - Penn Valley, where she studied dental hygiene.

Tiara began working for the IRS as a Data Entry Clerk, where she worked for 17 years.

She loved being with her family and friends and was always known to bring joy and laughter to any event she attended.

Tiara transitioned from this life to her heavenly home on October 26, 2025, at Research Medical Center, in Kansas City, Missouri.

She was preceded in death by her three brothers: Edward "Du" Washington, Anthony "Ziggy" Medellin, and Terrell "T-Mac" Parker; her paternal grandparents, and her maternal grandfather.

Left to cherish Tiara's memory: her father, Gregory Hill; her mother and step-father, Terrie Parker (Tony Medellin); her grandmother, Jeantte Turner; her sister, Tiffany Hill; her brother, Tyrone Hill (Tashala); a special nephew, Terrell Parker Jr.; her goddaughter, Royal Lynn Ross, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and other loving family and friends.
