Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road

And the sun has set for me

I want no rites in a gloom filled room

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long

And not with your head bowed low

Remember the love that once we shared

Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take

And each must go alone.

It's all part of the master plan

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart

Go to the friends we know.

Laugh at all the things we used to do

Miss me, but let me go.

"Christina Rossetti"

LIFE STORY

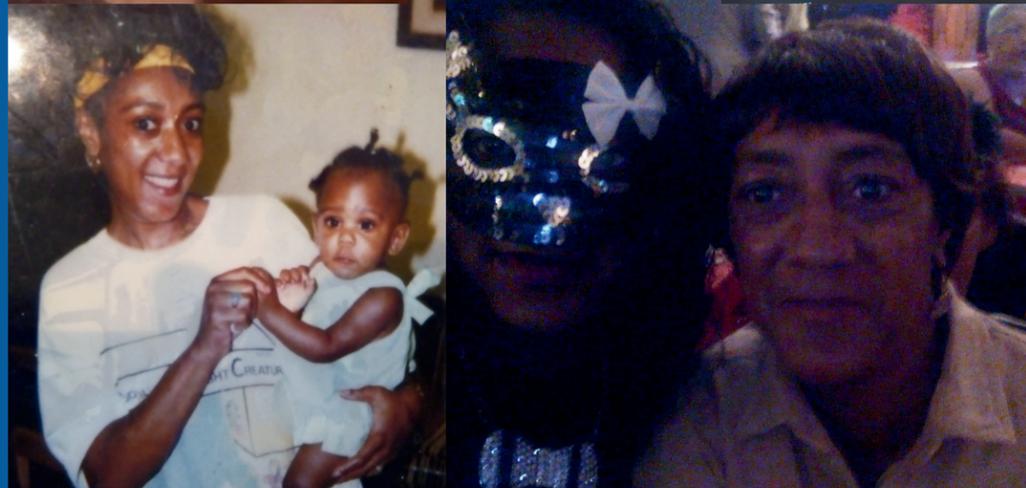

Shirley Mitchell, a beloved daughter, mother, grandmother, and friend, who departed from this world on November 19, 2025, at the age of 70. Born on January 15, 1955, in Brooklyn, NY to Oliver Mitchell and Mattie Gill.

Shirley lived a life full of love, laughter, and resilience, she was the mother of two children Avery, Dominique and Anthony. Shirley was a good, yet strict mother who did the best that she could and what was necessary for rearing. She made things happen for her children even if that meant she had to do it on her own. Christ remained the center and as a family, they attended the Tiny Grove Baptist Church in Logan, as a member she was part of the womens ministry. In 2006, Shirley and her children relocated to Marietta, GA.

Shirley married Eddie Green in the early 2000s. Shirley was gainfully employed and dedicated professional in administration and as a claims adjuster in the insurance industry. She was known for her warm spirit and compassion toward her colleagues and clients alike. Her work ethic and kindness touched the lives of many and will be remembered fondly.

Shirley was very friendly, she believed in helping her community and was known as the go to person for getting things done. She came back to Philadelphia in 2016. Shirley enjoyed many things. Shopping, dancing and she was an excellent cook. She made sure to rise early and have breakfast ready at 6am, daily.

Shirley enjoyed showering her grandchildren. Her generosity could not be matched.

Shirley was predeceased in death by her parents: Oliver Mitchell and Mattie Gill, three siblings, Barbara, Constance and Dupriest. Shirley is survived by her spouse, Eddie Green, her devoted children, Avery Gambles, Anthony Mitchell, and Dominique Barge, and her cherished grandchildren, AsiyaFowler, Asila Fowler, and Anthony Fowler Jr. She is also survived by her beloved brother, Waymond Mitchell, and niece, Teri Jefferson. Together, they honor her legacy and the countless memories they shared.

God looked around his garden and found an empty space.
Then he looked down upon this earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He only takes the best.

Love, Your Grandchildren

To me, you are an angel in disguise.
Full of intuition, you are intelligent and wise.
Always giving and helping through good times and bad.
You are the best friend I've ever had.
If I had one wish, it would surely be
To give you as much as you've given to me.
Though I've put our relationship through some cloudy
days,

You've been my sunshine in so many ways.
Through trials and tests, right by me you stood,
And you gave me your hand whenever you could.
Thank you so much, my sister, my friend.
My gratitude for you has no end

Love, your brother Waymond
