A Life Well Lived

God saw you growing weary,
And gently called you home.
Though our hearts are filled with sorrow,
We know you do not walk alone.
Your love remains within us,
Your smile we still can see.
The precious memories you gave
Will live through eternity.
Though we must part for now,
Your spirit will remain,
Guiding us with strength and faith
Until we meet again.
Rest peacefully in God's loving arms,
Free from every care.
Forever loved, forever missed,
Forever in our prayers.

Special Acknowledgments

The family extends sincere gratitude to Alisha Allen, Sandra Riddick, and all relatives and friends for your prayers, support, acts of kindness, and expressions of love during this difficult time. Your compassion and encouragement have been a source of great comfort and strength.

With heartfelt appreciation,
The Family

Antoinette, affectionately known as "Toni," was born on June 2, 1968, to James E. Grice and Norma A. Grice. She was the eldest of three daughters and a woman whose life was marked by faith, love, laughter, strength, and service to others.

Toni received her education at Martin Luther King High School and, at just 17 years old, pursued her Cosmetology License through the Randolph Skills Center while still attending high school. A gifted hairstylist, she built a remarkable career spanning more than 41 years until her illness. Toni was known for her precision haircuts, vibrant color work, and her ability to make every client feel special.

As she grew in her faith, Toni answered God's call upon her life and earned a Bachelor's Degree in Biblical Studies. Her pastor, Bishop Thomas Goodwyn of Gethsemane Tabernacle, recognized and affirmed the prophetic gifting upon her life, and she faithfully served as a Prophetess, encouraging, praying for, and ministering to countless individuals.

In 1990, Toni welcomed her firstborn son, Malique Grice, with her first love, Anthony. Family and friends often joked about the coincidence that both were affectionately known as "Toni and Tony."

Toni possessed a loving spirit, quick wit, outgoing personality, and a laugh that was truly contagious. She had a unique gift for making others laugh, often imitating people so perfectly that everyone around her would burst into laughter. Her joy was infectious, and people naturally gravitated toward her warmth and authenticity.

Her greatest passion was sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Toni's beauty salon became far more than a place for hairstyling; it often transformed into a sanctuary. Many clients walked through her doors burdened by life's challenges, only to leave encouraged, prayed for, and uplifted. Through her ministry behind the chair, countless lives were touched, hearts were healed, and many accepted Christ.

In 2009, Toni married the love of her life, Leon Boyer. Their union was blessed with a miracle son, Joshua, whom Toni joyfully welcomed at the age of 45. She cherished her role as a wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, and friend.

Toni was passionate about her faith, her family, and her beloved sports team, the Dallas Cowboys. Her playful rivalry with her stepfather, Booker T. Washington, over football became a cherished family tradition. Toni proudly called herself a Cowboys fan, while Booker jokingly referred to them as the "Cowgirls." Their spirited debates brought laughter to family gatherings for many years. When the Eagles won, family members often teased Toni with phone calls that went unanswered—except when Booker called, because she would always answer for him.

When Toni sought spiritual guidance and encouragement, she often turned to her stepfather, Elder William Henderson, to strengthen her faith. Toni and her mother shared a beautiful relationship filled with love, laughter, and countless hours of conversation. They could spend hours talking on the phone, sometimes every day, sharing stories, family updates, and everything in between. And whenever Torri became the topic of conversation, it seemed she had a sixth sense—because almost without fail, she would call right at that very moment! Those little moments brought laughter to the family and are now treasured memories of the special connection they all shared.

She also found joy in spending time with her beloved nieces, Mona'e and Michaela, especially when gathering to watch scary movies together. Those moments filled her heart with happiness and created treasured memories.

Toni had a deep love and respect for the elderly. Many of her closest friendships were with senior adults, especially her 93-year-old grandmother Mildred McCarter of Columbus Ohio. She valued the wisdom they shared. In the last two years of her life, even while battling illness, she faithfully served as a caregiver, continuing to put the needs of others before her own.

In 2019, Toni was diagnosed with breast cancer. As a devoted woman of God, she faced the diagnosis with courage and unwavering faith, believing that God always has the final say. After a long and difficult battle, she celebrated remission and gave glory to God for bringing her through.

In April 2026, the cancer returned. Once again, Toni entered the fight with faith, determination, and hope. Although her body grew weaker, her spirit remained strong. Surrounded by the prayers of family and friends, she continued to battle relentlessly. Her declining health never diminished her joy, her laughter, or her trust in God.

Toni was a warrior, fighting both naturally and spiritually. Eventually, the battle became too much, and she shared with her mother that she was tired. On Sunday morning, August 23, 2026, the Lord gently called His faithful servant home.

Toni leaves to cherish her memory: Sons Malique Grice and Joshua Boyer; Grandson Kamill; Sisters Pastor Anita West (Pastor William West) and Torri Grice (Clayton); Mother Norma Washington (Stepfather Booker T. Washington), Stepfather Elder William Henderson (Phyllis); Grandmother Mildred McCarter; Aunts Rev. Karen McCleary and Cheryl McCleary; Uncle Gerald McCleary (Cynthia); Nephews Rashaad Groce (Jennifer) Raheem Groce, Joseph West, Torrell Bigelow; Nieces – Alia West, Teshae Padgett-Furr (Zian), Monae' Bigelow and Michaela Johnson.

And a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends, church family, and loved ones who will forever cherish the gift of her life.

Closing Tribute

"Well done, good and faithful servant." Matthew 25:23

Though our hearts are heavy with loss, we rejoice knowing that Toni's faith has become sight. Her love, laughter, prayers, and legacy will continue to live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know her. She will be deeply missed, forever loved, and never forgotten.
