

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Leaving But Not Gone

You never said I'm leaving
You never said Farewell.
You were absent before I knew it
And only He knew why.

A million times I called for you
A million times I wept.
If love alone could have save you
You would have never faded.

In life I value you greatly
In death I value you still.
In my soul you have a seat
That no one could ever fill.

It shattered my soul to see you fade
But you didn't go alone
For a portion of me went with you
The day He drew you Home.

Obituary

Audrey Sue Bell (Bohannon) was born on October 8, 1952, in Cincinnati, OH, to Appleton Sr. and Sue Bohannon. She grew up in several neighborhoods, but Mt. Auburn was her home.

Audrey was educated in the Cincinnati Public Schools. She graduated from Hughes High School in 1971. She worked for the Cincinnati Recreation Commission for 18 years. In 1977, she married Harold Bell.

Audrey loved children, going to Bingo with her mother and sisters. She loved all holidays, and was always ready to BBQ, celebrate, and spend time with her family. She spent Saturday mornings listening to music and playing with her plants. Oh, and don't forget shopping, each time she would be sure to bring home something red... her favorite color.

Audrey joined Mt. Auburn Baptist Church, under the late Pastor Hamilton. She was a member of the Ladies social club, The Divas. She also coached the girls drill team, Midnight Express.

Audrey was preceded in death by her parents Appleton, Sr. and Sue Bohannon; 2 brothers: Monroe, Sr. and Appleton, Jr. (Sonny); 1 grandson: Darius Parker; and 1 great-grandson: Ky'ale Darius Wells.

Audrey had two children Kimberley Bohannon and Dionne Pickett; one bonus daughter her niece Gloria Hill-Brown; two sisters Sandra Gloria Hill (Bohannon) and Loretta Bohannon Davis; six grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

LOVE is patient, love is kind... it does not envy, it does not boast
 it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self seeking, it is not easily angered,
 it keeps no record of wrongs.
 Love does not delight in evil
 but rejoices in TRUTH.
 It always protects, always trusts,
 always HOPES, always preserves.
LOVE NEVER FAILS
