Family and Friends

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions: If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.
John 14:1-4 KJV

An Acknowledgement of Appreciation

With grateful hearts, we extend our deepest appreciation for the overwhelming love, support, and kindness shown to us during this time of loss. Your prayers, comforting words, and thoughtful gestures have provided strength and solace as we navigate this difficult journey. As we honor and remember Shandi Bailey Stevens, we take comfort in knowing she was deeply loved, and her beautiful spirit will live on in our hearts forever.

With love and gratitude,
Stevens & Bailey Family

Remembering

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of our beloved Shandi Bailey Stevens who departed this life on February 18, 2025. She was a cherished daughter, devoted wife, loving stepmother, sister, aunt, niece, and friend to many.

Shandi was the most loving and kind-hearted person, always bringing warmth and joy to those around her. She had a deep love for spending time with family and friends, especially her nieces and nephews, whom she adored. Nothing made her happier than being surrounded by her sisters, laughing, talking, and making memories together.

She also found immense joy in simple moments—one of her favorite pastimes was walking in the park with her beloved husband, Jahmarley Stevens, reminiscing about the very first time they met. Their love was a beautiful journey, filled with cherished moments and deep affection.

She leaves behind to honor her memory; her devoted husband, Jahmarley Stevens, and beloved stepdaughter, Eliza Stevens; her loving parents, Enette Bailey and Warren Smith; and her dear grandmother, Gwendoline Bailey. She will be forever missed by her sisters, Shevern Dolphin, Shamala Bailey, Shenequa Taylor, Sherene Taylor, and Kishma Dolphin; her brother, Dion Demming; her niece, Simiya Clarke; and her nephews, Hasheem, Harheem, and Hazheem Farrell, and Kamari Haydell.

She is also lovingly remembered by her aunts, Iredell Smith, Lexica Bailey, Antoinette Bailey, and Alison Bailey; her uncles, Jayson Bailey, Jesse Bailey, Mack Smith, and John Smith; along with a host of other family members and dear friends whose lives she touched with her kindness, laughter, and unwavering love. Though our hearts are heavy with grief, we take comfort in knowing that Shandi lived a life full of love and beautiful memories. Her spirit will live on in the lives she touched, and her love will forever be a guiding light for all who knew her. Forever in our hearts, always in our thoughts.

Tributes: Simiya: My twin heart remains with me forever, your twin.

Dad: you will forever be on my mind, and I will always love you.

Sherene: Things was always fun and wonderful when you were involved. I love you Shandi and a trust that you will never be forgotten. Rest easy sis. I will always love and miss you so much. I pray you're doing and feeling greater than ever. Please continue to visit me and remember we're sisters for life.

Shevern: Your life was a blessing, your memories will be cherished, you've grown wings and flown to heaven, but you will never be forgotten.

Mom: I will always love you and you will always be remembered. You will be in my heart forever.
