

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the day,
And the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take.
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the maker's plan.
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

Don't Cry For Me

Don't cry for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following in the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day, to laugh,
to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss and
Yet these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
good friends, good times, a loved one's touch...
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Goodbyes

Goodbyes
Are not forever
They are not the end
It simply means
I'll miss you
Until we meet again
I love you, son of mine, Momma

Obituary

Jabar Kevin Durand Busby, affectionately known as “Bar-Bar”, departed this life on July 24, 2019. He was born on June 1, 1987 in Neptune, NJ to Hazel Williams-Busby and Kevin K. Green.

He attended The Valley School, Orange, NJ and Hudson County Community College, Jersey City, NJ. During Jabar’s short tender life he made a huge impact. Everything Jabar did, he did with extreme passion. Jabar loved to cook. He held cooking positions for Just Fish Café and Dunkin Donuts.

Jabar was an amazing cook, known for his favorite meal of lobster tails, string beans and mashed potatoes. He loved basketball with a passion. He played on the summer league teams. Jabar was named by the neighborhood as “Two-Chains” of basketball. When he got the ball, it was a guaranteed shot. You could hear the crowd chanting “Two-Chains”, “Two-Chains”.

Jabar was gifted in so many things. He had a great love for music and rapping. Nothing was more important to Bar-Bar then his family and friends. Jabar loved his family with his whole heart and he showed it. He was always the first one to help. He would do anything to put a smile on the face of his loved ones.

Jabar would often take meals to the senior citizens in the neighborhood or handout money to the neighborhood kids for ice cream. He often put the needs of others before his own.

Anyone who stood still in Jabar’s presence for 15 minutes was guaranteed to learn something new and exciting. He was a lover of knowledge, one who knew the power of words. He used his words wisely. Bar-Bar will be missed beyond words and never be forgotten.

He is predeceased by his grandmothers, Bertha M. Williams and Madelene Green Sanders; grandfather, Cyrus Green; two aunts, Joni E. Walker and Charlotte Green. He is survived by his mother, Hazel D. Williams-Busby; father, Kevin K. Green; brother, Dyron A Williams; two sisters, Sade M. Busby and Sasha R, Busby; three nephews, Semaj J. Lane, Islam Joshua, Jr and Camron Busby; five uncles, Daryl Green, Vernon Sanders, Marcus Sanders, Philip Sanders and Ricky Green; four aunts, Alicia Green, Roseline Green, Rachel Williams and Tonya Green. Jeremiah Zahir Crumes (like a son); special friend, Chemise “Yuri” Crumes. His engifted family, Harold and Barbara Sirmans, Daraun Sirmans, Candace Aberdeen, Hakeem Sirmans, Markees Sirmans, Kente McCormick, Dennia Sirmans and Rahneesha Sirmans; best friends and cousins, Daniel Bellamy, Shenique Bellamy and Salik Hinton; and many more very special cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.
