David Landrock Galloway

November 5, 1944 - February 13, 2026

David Landrock Galloway, aged 81, of Springfield, Missouri, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family, love, and tranquility on Friday, February 13, 2026, following a lengthy illness. True to his fun, outgoing, and mischievous personality as a prankster and trickster, it seems fitting that he would choose to leave this world on Friday the 13th.

Born November 5, 1944, in Nebraska City, Nebraska, David was the youngest of three brothers. He was preceded in death by his mother, Bertha Margaret Galloway, his father, Charles Andrew Galloway, and his older brother, Andrew "Andy" Galloway, as well as his former wife, Charlotte Lucas. David spent his childhood in Lawrence, Kansas, before moving to Springfield, where he attended Parkview High School and played varsity basketball.

In Springfield, David met his wife, Charlotte Coon. The two married and welcomed their children, Julie and Patrick. Together, the family moved first to Kansas City and later to Chadwick. David cherished the "farm" — an old cabin in Chadwick nestled on 70+ wooded acres with Swan Creek running through it. The farm was the site of many lively parties and gatherings, featuring swimming and water volleyball.

David had a deep love of sports, both playing basketball and coaching youth basketball and soccer. He loved to play golf and was quite an excellent golfer. David was also known for being a great billiards player, where he was a formidable opponent. He is a founding member of Lake Country Youth Soccer. As a businessman, he owned and operated several ventures throughout his life, beginning with Leisure Foam. He was an avid fisherman who spent countless hours on lakes and rivers, and he delighted in camping, canoeing, and spending time in the wilderness with his children and grandchildren. Often, he was the one to set up camp and secure a spot on the Buffalo River for the rest of the family. These adventures created cherished memories of camping, canoeing, fishing, and laughter around the campfire.

Known for his optimism, humor, wit, and compassion, David also adored his dog Sadie and frequently donated to local animal rescues. He had many friends and enjoyed spending time talking, laughing, and sharing glasses of red wine while listening to the Ozark Mountain Daredevils. David loved to travel, always returning with stories full of adventure and misadventure. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

David is survived by his two children, Julie Galloway-Freeman and Patrick Galloway; their spouses, Rob Freeman and Paulena Galloway; grandchildren Kaitlin and Wesley Batson; his great-grandchildren, Nina & Khaza Thang; his brother Jack Galloway and spouse Janet Galloway, their children Ian and Ross Galloway, and spouse Mariana Galloway; nephews Robbie Galloway and Mark Galloway; nieces Penny, Sherry, and Kelley; step-children Tiffany Caywood-Brunner and Jerod Caywood; and step-grandchildren Alex Carlson, Brady Carlson, Murphy Brunner, Brandon, Kristen, Alexander, and Ashley Carter.

In lieu of flowers, donations to Rescue One, C.A.R.E. Rescue or the Humane Society of Southwest Missouri are appreciated.
