

...Until We Meet Again

Those special memories of you will always bring a smile
if only I could have you back for just a little while Then we could sit and talk again
just like we used to do you always meant so very much and always will do too
The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain
but you're forever in my heart
until we meet again

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
FRANK PATRICK
SINCLAIR

(BROWN AND WHITE HORSEMAN)

MARCH 17, 1949—DECEMBER 25,

Frank was born Thursday, March 17, 1949 in Moose Lake, Manitoba to Benjamin and Louisa Sinclair. Frank was raised in Moose lake in his early years than moved to The Pas for work, Dad worked at Manfor (Tolko), CN Rail, Western Groceries, Moose lake Loggers and Virginia Fontaine Treatment Centre. When in The Pas, Frank met his wife of 48 years, Julie and had a traditional wedding in 1992. Together they had seven children Quentin (Cynthia), Frank Jr., Diane (Daniel), Deanne (Morris), Jennifer, Gregory and Ryan; sisters Jessie Lucas, Patricia Sinclair and Fanny Constant; brother Joey (Veronica) Sinclair; grandchildren Adam, Jade, Richard, Gregory, Jake, Jody, Rochelle, Jenine, Joshua, Jolene, Sarah, Matthew, Emma, Kelsea, Michael, Tristan, Dylan, Gage, Jasmine, Sunrise, Shannoah, Hailey, Kree and Jonathan; great grandchildren Elena, Taylor, Grey, Leland, Franki, Daejah, Jaden, Bella, Katherine, Rose and Isaac.

Over the years Frank lived a traditional life, he enjoyed sharing his knowledge of ceremonies with young people and his family. Dad was a Sun dancer who enjoyed travelling on his healing journey, he made his way all the way to Pipestone, Minnesota, Sagkeeng First Nation and Heron Bay, Ontario, where he met many lifelong friends. He also attended many other ceremonies on his journey.

Frank loved being with his children and grandchildren telling stories about the good old days. He would call his children to tell them the latest gossip, usually starting with "you know what your mom did today". He enjoyed going for rides and out for dinners at the casino. He made sure to attend graduations for his children and grand children, he was proud of all of them. He made sure his great granddaughter Franki who he was raising had everything she wanted and needed.

Frank was predeceased by his parents Benjamin and Louisa Sinclair; his children Gregory, Micheal and Ryan; granddaughter Kennedy; sisters Joanne Ballantyne, Margaret Jane Campbell, Christina Sinclair, Harriet Sinclair, Anna Scott, Bella Lachose; brothers Benjamin Sinclair Jr., Joe Sinclair and Phillip Sinclair; brother-in-law John Campbell, Billy Scott and Pat Ballantyne Sr..
