

*God saw you growing weary,
So He did what He knew was best;
He came and stood beside you and whispered:
"Come to Me and Rest"
You bade no one a last farewell,
Nor even said, "Goodbye."
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.
Take her there in your arms, Dear Lord,
Treasure her with care;
Make up for all suffered and
All that was unfair;
Shower her with happiness
For she was a loving soul;
And as she struggle through this life...
Heaven was her goal.*

Life Reflections

Henrietta F. Rembert was born January 17, 1938, in Darlington, South Carolina to the late Enoch and Josephine Fullard. She departed this life on Thursday, April 16, 2026.

Henrietta accepted Christ at an early age as a member of Center Baptist Church in Darlington. While living in New York, she was a member of Convent Avenue Baptist Church. When she returned to South Carolina, she became a member of St. Paul African Methodist Episcopal Church Shaw. She was a member of the Usher Board, Women's Missionary Society and the Hospitality Committee.

Henrietta was a 1957 graduate of Mayo High School in Darlington, SC. After graduating high school, she moved to New York and began working as a machine operator. After moving back to South Carolina, she worked as a machine operator for Lady Madison in Sumter, SC until her retirement.

Henrietta met Julius Rembert, Jr. while living in New York and they decided to move to Sumter, SC and later got married. With this union two families were joined which consist of six daughters and one son.

Henrietta leaves to cherish her memory, her loving husband, Julius Rembert, Jr.; her daughters: Renee (Wayne) Barrett and Lolita Fullard; bonus daughters: Carrie Gadson and Julia Kennedy and bonus son Julius E. Rembert; 17 grandchildren, 37 great grandchildren and 4 great-great grandchildren; her godson, Antonio (Tyshia) Thomas; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, eight sisters: Lillian Garland, Dorothy Wiggins, Retha Mae Ray, Ernestine Hunter, Willie Jennings, Eloise Thomas and Annie Wiley; one brother: Enoch Fullard, Jr; daughter Carmen Moody, bonus daughter Cathy McDonald; one granddaughter, and two great grandchildren.
