Celebration of Life

On December 19th, 1951, the late Eugene & Gloria Marshall was blessed with a beautiful bundle of joy, Janet Beatrice Marshall. Janet was beautiful inside and out. She was born and lived the first 10 years of her life in Jacksonville, Florida. Janet was called home on July 29, 2021- a day of great significances.

Janet attended Nassau Community College, then transferred to C.W. Post University on Long Island, New York; where she received her Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education. During this time, she met her late husband Roger O. DeLoney. The couple had 3 boys whom they raised while living in New York. After graduating from college, Janet worked as a teacher with the Nassau County School System for 3 years. Janet started her new career with Double Day Book Company, where she worked as a computer programmer. Janet relocated to Virginia in 1983; and, after the death of her first husband she married, Phillip Morris. The couple welcomed their daughter in 1987. Janet continued her work as a computer/software engineer until she retired in 2014.

Janet leaves a long legacy and is cherished by 3 generations of family. She is survived by her 4 children: Roger DeLoney (Aishah), Rahmon DeLoney, Rahsaan DeLoney, Ashley Reyes (Jose); 2 stepdaughters: Jeanita Gregory (LeRoy), Tamara Morris; 6 grandchildren: Wayne Morris, Rahsaan DeLoney, Samadhi DeLoney, Chike DeLoney, Angelica and Angel Reyes; 1 great grandchild, Ziyha DeLoney; and a host of extended family and friends. Janet is preceded in death by two nephews Cameron Reed & David Marshall II, and one granddaughter Jasmine Morris.
