

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

Destiny Raqual Baber was born on December 1, 1993, in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Kenneth Myles and Nequia Baber. She peacefully departed this life on Sunday, July 12, 2026, after a courageous battle with lupus.

Destiny was preceded in death by her loving parents, Kenneth Myles and Nequia Baber; her beloved sister, Jaiden Jones; and her cherished grandmother, Paulean Myles.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory her loving grandmother, Debra Baber; her siblings Deonte Baber, Adamu Williams, Danisha Shannon, Kenisha Myles, Kendra Myles and step siblings Diamond, Brianna, Brian Latrielle ; and her beloved nephew, King Kaden, whom she loved with all her heart.

She is also survived by her paternal grandfather, J.W, along with a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, extended family, and dear friends.

Those left to cherish her memory include her stepmother Nie Myles, aunts and uncles: Patricia Jade Ruff, Stephanie Ruff, Mero Ruff, Dichelle Baber, Uncle Gerry and Aunt Bridgette Myles, and Aunt Mary and Uncle Oluchukwu, as well as many cousins whose lives were forever enriched by knowing and loving Destiny.

She also leaves behind her devoted best friend, Lil Des and favorite little cousins Aniya and Asia who remained a constant source of love and friendship throughout her life.

Destiny graduated from Wyoming High School and pursued a career in the medical field. Despite facing tremendous health challenges of her own, she dedicated herself to caring for others. Her compassion, resilience, and servant's heart reflected the remarkable woman she was.

Destiny was only 31 years old, and although her time with us was far too short, the impact she made will last a lifetime.

For most of her life, Destiny courageously battled lupus—a fight that many could never fully understand. Yet through every setback, she continued to rise. Time and time again, she demonstrated extraordinary strength, perseverance, and unwavering faith.

She became so strong that those who loved her almost expected her to overcome every obstacle. Every challenge only revealed more of her courage and determination. That is why losing her feels so unreal. We became accustomed to watching her conquer battle after battle, believing somehow she would always find a way.
