

Trevor Donovan (HOLAHTA) Larney, born on February 3, 1994, in Shawnee, Oklahoma, passed away on April 11, 2025, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Throughout his life, Trevor was known for his outgoing personality, unwavering enthusiasm, and an extraordinary capacity to love, especially for his children, his family, and his Aunt Darnell.

Trevor earned his GED and proudly obtained his welding license. He put his whole heart into everything he did. He was an inspiration to some and he was the definition of a rider.

Those who were fortunate enough to know Trevor remember him as a person who always sought to uplift those around him. With a big heart, he helped his friends and loved ones in any way he could, often going above and beyond to ensure no one felt down. He had an incredible sense of humor and loved to make people laugh. His love for his family and children was profound. His presence had a profound impact on those around him. He embodied an outgoing and adventurous spirit. He remained undeterred by obstacles. He exhibited compassion towards a wide range of people.

As a teenager, Trevor had a passion for skateboarding, dedicating countless hours to perfecting new tricks. He never gave up until he perfected that trick.

Those who preceded him in death are his grandfather, Lee Larney and grandmother, Geneva Larney.

Those left to cherish his memory are mother, Flora Kent-Larney, brother, William Meeks, Jr., step-dad, William Meeks, sons, Zechariah Larney and Uniah Wapskineh, nephews, Jordan and Nakose, his favorite aunt, Darnell Larney, grandmother, Harriet Larney, and numerous cousins and extended family.
