

Order of Service

Officiating Ventnor T. Wright

Prelude Roberta Scott
Processional..... Clergy & Family
Military Tribute..... Local Veterans

Opening Selection

Scripture Readings
Old Testament – Psalm 23
New Testament – John 14:1-6
Prayer of Comfort

Selection

Reading of Cards, Condolences
& the Obituary

Reflections Family & Friends

Words of Comfort
Music Ministry..... Darlene Alston

Eulogy..... Rev. Timothy Creekmur

Recessional Directives Ventnor T. Wright
Funeral Director

Recessional Clergy & Family

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved your dearly,
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
the day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide
And though we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again.

Inurnment

With Full Military Honors

Indiantown Gap National Cemetery
Annville, Pennsylvania

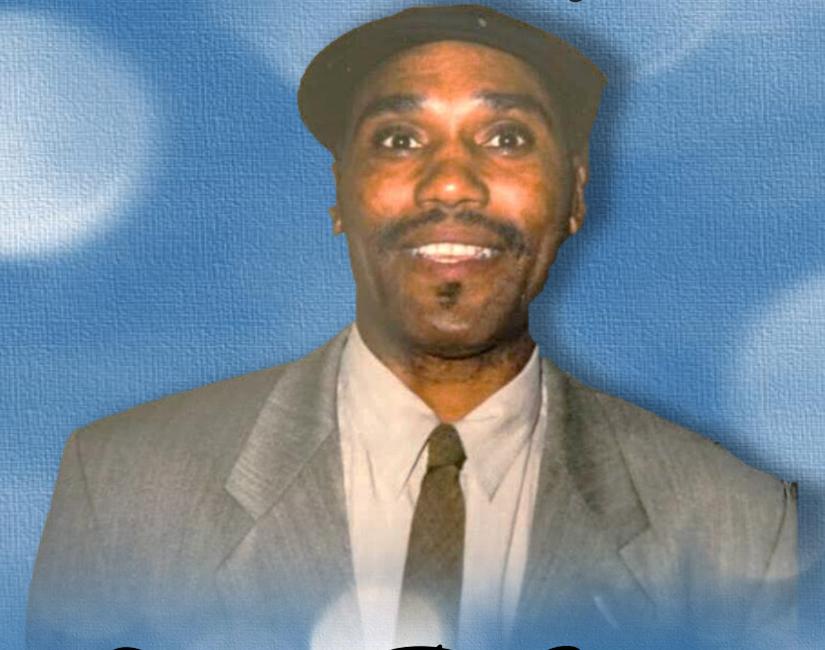

Thank You

The family extends gratitude to everyone who has supported them with prayers and kindness during their time of bereavement. May God continue to bless you.

Arrangements by

WRIGHT FUNERAL & CREMATION SERVICES, INC.
725 MERCHANT STREET | COATESVILLE, PA 19320
610-384-0341

Celebrating the Life of

Frankie R. Anthony "Legend"

Sunrise Sunset
April 6, 1957 - April 28, 2023

Service of Love

Tuesday, June 6, 2023 – 11:00 AM
Wright Funeral & Cremation Services
725 Merchant Street
Coatesville, Pennsylvania

Life History of Legend

Frankie Roosevelt Anthony also known as "Legend" was born in West Virginia on April 6, 1957 to the late John Roosevelt Anthony and the late Inez Helen Washington Anthony. He transitioned from earth to glory on Friday, April 28, 2023 at his residence in Coatesville, Pennsylvania.

After graduating from Glass High School in Lynchburg, Virginia, Frankie joined the United States Army. During his military service he was awarded medals for his valiant efforts in telecommunications and marksmanship. He faithfully served two years until he was honorably discharged.

After returning to civilian life, he relocated from Richmond, VA to Coatesville PA. He worked at the Coatesville Veterans Administration (VA) Medical Center for many years.

Frankie was the husband of Gloria Alston with whom he shared 10 years.

As a youth, Frankie was a very joyful young man. As a young boy he would sing along with his mom and siblings without any cares, only happiness in being with family and praising our heavenly Father.

He loved nice cars and was a Philadelphia Eagles fan. The family has memories of him driving a Cadillac, and a Lexus. Frankie was a jack of all trades. He was also a good cook. When the family was expected to visit him and Gloria, Frankie would prepare a special dinner.

He was a devoted friend and brother, uncle, cousin, husband and friend. What he had, he shared. He gave like Santa Claus to his family and spent time. When he was quiet in words, he was stellar in presence. When he was present such joy and love engulfed us all. His last vision was to return to Virginia. He fondly spoke of his wife, Gee and was appreciative of their union. Frankie had a special connection with everyone who knew him, it was like love and friendship never ran out.

In addition to his parents, John and Inez, Frankie was predeceased by two sisters, Maggie "Helen" Anthony and Veda Scott; two brothers, John Anthony, Jr. and Ornnie Anthony.

He is survived by his wife, Gloria Alston of Coatesville, PA; brother, James Anthony (Tina) of Pennsylvania; sister, Jackie Jones (Herman) of Virginia; special friends: Doris, Evelyn, Rachel, Esau and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends both in PA and in the VA community.

Sorrowfully Submitted,

The Family

