

God's Garden

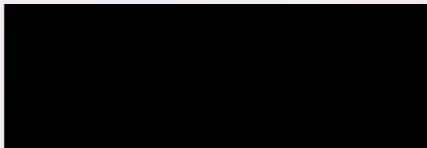

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Obituary

Thelma was born on October 4, 1964, to the late Mary Katherine Boyd and Herbert McGowan in Flemingsburg, Kentucky. She was baptized at Strawberry Methodist Church in Flemingsburg at an early age. Thelma and her family moved to Covington in the early 80s.

Thelma worked for Storer Cable Company for 16 years. She started in customer service and worked her way up to general manager.

Thelma departed this earthly life on July 14th at her home in Covington at the age of 61.

Thelma was a hard worker, loving and caring sister, daughter, partner, and friend. She was a gentle, quiet soul who loved her Cincinnati Bengals and was secretly a Steelers fan. She loved cooking wonderful and delicious meals for her partner.

Thelma is well loved by her partner, family, friends, and co-workers. All will truly miss her caring, loving spirit.

She leaves not to mourn but to cherish her loving memory: her partner, John C. Jennings; her three sisters, Belinda McGowan, Anna Hatton of Covington, KY, and Theresa McGowan of Las Vegas, NV; her two brothers, Ricky McGowan and Chris Boyd (Dessie) of Covington, KY; a host of nieces, nephews, and great-nieces and nephews. Thelma was preceded in death by three brothers, Kenny McGowan, Herbert McGowan, and Kevin McGowan, and her sister, Ella Rice.

Thelma Jean McGowan will be remembered for her kindness, her strength, and the indelible mark she left on the hearts of all who were fortunate to know her. May her soul rest in eternal peace.
