

Iris Neibaur Hunter
May 29, 1936 - May 4, 2018

Iris Libby Neibaur Hunter was born in Newdale, Idaho. She attended Teton Elementary School and then went on to attend Sugar Salem High School and graduated in 1954. After high school, she attended Ricks College in Rexburg, Idaho.

After college she obtained a job at Idaho First National Bank in Idaho Falls, Idaho and worked there until 1961. She then moved to Provo, Utah, and continued in the banking business.

Iris met her sweetheart Keith, through her sister Karryn, who was dating Keith's brother. Iris and Keith married in February of 1962, in the Idaho Falls LDS temple.

Their first son Richard, was born in Provo, Utah, at the end of that year. After Keith graduated from college, the little family moved to Eugene, Oregon and were blessed with their first daughter Melissa followed by their next son Greg who was born in Corvallis. After a few they moved to Albany and three additional children were born.

Once her children were in school Iris returned to work and worked for many years at South Albany High School until her retirement.

She was a life-long member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Iris was heavily involved in church and community service. She served in many capacities including Stake Primary President and Portland LDS Temple worker. Iris will be remembered by many whose lives were touched by her sweet, patient love and innumerable acts of quiet service.

Iris was preceded in death by her husband R. Keith Hunter; parents Alta and Adrian Neibaur; sisters Rose Barney and Ruth Williams; brothers Gleason and Clyde Neibaur.

She is survived by sister Karryn Hunter (Les) of Twin Falls, ID; brother Kent (Ann) Neibaur of Baltimore, MD; children Richard (Jeannie) Hunter of Sandpoint, ID, Melissa Zarate of Albany, OR, Greg Hunter of Albany, OR, Stephanie (Danny) Harber of Corvallis, OR, Rachel (Oliver) Prichard of Las Vegas, NV, Nathan (Allyson) Hunter of Vancouver, WA; 12 grandchildren; and 1 great-grandson.

Memorial service will be at 2 pm on Saturday, May 12 at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on 28th Street in Albany.

In Loving Memory of

Iris Libby Hunter

Weep Not In Sorrow

*Weep not in tears of sorrow
Because I've gone away,
But weep with tears of gladness
For the peace I have today.*

*I know your hearts are heavy
With sorrow that you bear,
But God has called me home,
my place is ready there.*

*My stay on earth's completed,
my final rest is won,
I've received the richest blessing;
to dwell with God's own Son.*
