

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.*

Lola showed remarkable faith, courage and resilience in the Lord as she moved through life with many health challenges. As a caring and nurturing aunt, mother-figure and friend, Lola was celebrated for her exceptional generosity, kindness and signature onion fried potatoes. Her selfless nature and willingness to give without expecting anything in return was a testament to her remarkable character. She was also a thoughtful and attentive listener, offering wise counsel and guidance to those who sought her advice.

Lola's presence was a breath of fresh air to anyone she encountered, and her motivated and energetic personality was nothing less than inspiring. Her interests included creating extraordinary art out of ordinary items, playing Bingo, and visiting the local casino.

Lola leaves to cherish her memory, two brothers, Byron (Devra) Hines, John Hines and sister, June Hines all of Cincinnati, and a host of nieces and nephews.
