

Family Tree

A limb has fallen from the family tree
I hear a voice that whispers, 'Grieve not for me'
Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs
The good I lived while I was strong
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remembering all...how I was truly blessed
Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall
I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin
Until that fine day we're together again.

HIS BIRTH

Mr. Garrette Scott, Jr. was born on March 16, 1946 to Mr. Garrette Scott, Sr. and Mrs. Fannie Lee Jones Scott in Holly Bluff, Mississippi. He was the fourth born of twelve children to this union.

HIS REBIRTH

Garrette, Jr. accepted Christ as his Savior at an early age. He was a member of Tulane Missionary Baptist Church in Yazoo City, MS where he was a faithful member and sang in the choir until his health prevented him from doing so. In singing his favorite songs like "Your Grace and Mercy", "Search Me, Lord", "I Can See So Much", "All Night", "Move Me", "My Soul has been Anchored in the Lord", and "Just a Closer Walk with Thee", the vibrato in his voice could fill the room.

HIS EDUCATION, AND CAREER

Junior, as he was also called, graduated from Yazoo City Training School #2 in 1964. While in school, he was an active member of the school's choir. He continued with formal vocal training as he matriculated through Mississippi Valley State University.

HIS MEMORIES

Garrette, Jr.'s kitchen was his happy place. Cooking was his ministry. So many bodies, hearts, and souls were touched through his food. He loved to entertain and take care of those around him.

Surrounded with the love of his children, he transitioned to his forever home with God on October 31, 2022. He will forever be remembered for his love of God, family, Mississippi Valley State University, and cooking.

HIS LOVED ONES

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Garrette and Fannie Scott; his sisters, Velma Scott, Vera Gill, and Betty Phillips; and his brothers, James Scott and Harry Scott.
