Life Reflections

With heavy hearts, we say goodbye to Monique, but also with gratitude for our time with her. Monique was a loving and caring person, but her personality was often misunderstood.

She loved her kids and family, even though she never saw them, but that's all she talked about. Now she's in heaven looking down on us. She wanted us to know she's in a better place. She always told me, "Sister, don't cry. Tell my family to party." She loved all of us with the big heart she had.

Monique worked at the Chiefs and Royals Stadiums.

She leaves to cherish her memory her mother Donna L. Smith, daughter Hamarie Smith, son Delmere Gooley, brothers Vernando J. Smith, James M. Fleming Jr., Larendon D. Smith, Montay L. Smith, and Ladavian Smith, sisters Lucretia R. Smith, La'Kesha Gooley (little sister), Shantel Gooley (little sister), and Gretta Franklin, grandmother Anjeanette White, uncle Jay Smith, and cousin Ana Smith.

She was preceded in death by., Dexter L. Gooley Jr., her twin brothers Derrick and Darren Gooley, Anna Moore, Kevin Moore, Thomas Sigger, Kimberly Smith, and Kevin Smith.
