

The Day God Took You Home

Sisters
A million times I've needed you

A million times I've cried
Flying High
If love alone could have saved
you

You never would have died,

In life I love you still,

In my heart to lose you,

But you didn't go alone

Part of me went with you,

The day God took you home.

Obituary

Betty Jane Swan, 70 years of age was born in Lebanon Kentucky to the late John Willie and Loucille Swan. She was one of the youngest of four siblings, Betty then became a mother in October of 1974 to her only son Steven Swan.

At the age of 23, Betty Jane moved to Cincinnati along with her mother Loucille, her two sisters Rita and Louella. After moving to Cincinnati Betty and her siblings lost their mother due to a traumatic accident which led Betty into a tremendous nervous breakdown which spiraled into mental illness, but even though life's challenges Betty was a fighter so she pushed on.

Betty Jane worked and was an active member of the Mitchell Center on Reading rd for 15 years.

November of 2019, She was diagnosed with kidney disease, after a courageous fight, she quietly passed over July 27th, 2020 at The City of Cincinnati Hospice in Blue Ash, Ohio.

Betty Jane Swan carried a charismatic personality with a signature laugh, she was funny, outspoken, and didn't take no mess! She absolutely loves music from old school to new school, She loved to listen to 100.9 the WIZ especially 7oclock MELLOW MOODS. She would be in her own world dancing to Whitney Houston or one of her favorites. Betty Jane was spunky with her sense of style, she loved to dress up and always up for a good laugh.

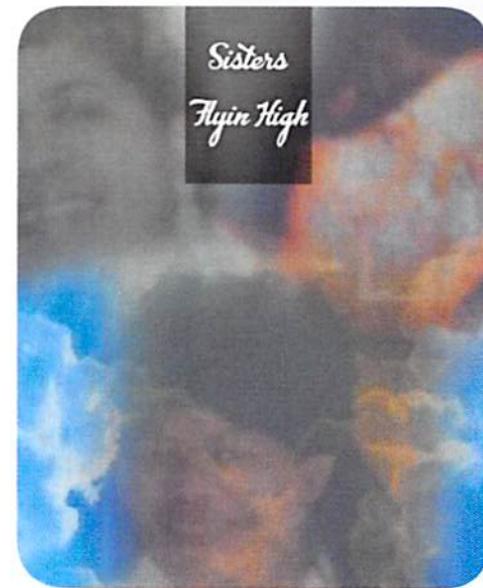

Betty Jane Swan was a wonderful mother, a loving aunt/great aunt to many, she was always helpful with her many nieces and nephews. Betty played her role thoroughly as a sister/mother/aunt.

Her beautiful life and spirit will forever be cherished in the lives of her family. She leaves to cherish her memory: Steven Swan (son) Nicholas Logan (grandson) Natalie Swan (granddaughter) Anat Savonarah Swan (daughter-in-law), Denise (niece) Tonya Porter-Whitfield (niece), Stephanie Porter (niece), Michael Porter (nephew), and a host of great-nieces and great-nephews, family members, and dear friends.

Her Father, John willie, Mother, Loucille, Sister, Louella, Sister, Rita, Brother Billy, all preceded her in death.
