The Obituary

On Wednesday, March 3, 2024, at 9:00 p.m., an angel came down to earth and touched the sweet, loving heart of Flora Camper Thompson and carried her to her new home to be with her Lord and Savior and her loved ones who had gone on before her.

Flora was born on July 5, 1941, to the proud parents of A. V. and Ella Lee Camper of Shivers, Mississippi. She was baptized at an early at James Chapel Church. She attended New Hymn Vocational High School, graduating in the class of 1960. She was united in Holy Matrimony on March 16, 1961, to her childhood sweetheart, Solomon H. Thompson and moved to New Orleans, Louisiana.

Two weeks after their wedding, Solomon received a request from Uncle Sam saying, "I Want You!" Flora returned to Mississippi for a brief period, then joined her husband in Houston, Texas, where they lived until he was discharged from the Army.

They returned to New Orleans where she united with the New Testament Missionary Baptist Church faithfully for a few years. Then, she joined the Historic Second Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor Thos. Nelson Washington.

Flora was employed by Thayer McNeil Shoe Store, Godchaux's, and Delmonico's Restaurant. In her last employment, she served as a nanny for Mr. & Mrs. Daniel Pick, raising their three young children, Harrison, Sarah Elise and Miles David. She was employed by the Picks for 27 years and had a loving and lasting relationship with them.

She will be remembered first by her beautiful smile and by her ability to stay dressed to the nines! Flo could enter a room filled with ladies and make them think they had either too much or not enough clothes on. She was a fashion expert and known near and far for her ability to dress. She was also known for her generosity to family and friends.

She leaves to mourn her passing: her husband, Solomon H. Thompson; two sisters, Odessa Adams (James), and Ora Dell Siverand (James), both of Oakland, California; two sisters-in-law, Bobbie Fleury and Della Abron; brother-in-law, Edward Thompson of Pinola, Mississippi; and a host of other relatives and friends.
