

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away –
Her journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets –
This earth is only one.
Just think of her as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost –
And she was loved so much.

Reflections of a Beautiful Soul

Carolyn M. Sewell was born to Emmett and Jane Sewell of Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was the eldest of three girls born unto their union. As a young child she attended services with her parents and was baptized at The Mt. Zion Baptist Church.

Carolyn to all who knew her, was a vibrant soul who lived life to the fullest. She was both beautiful and confident.

Every family has a firecracker, but based on Carolyn's mood or her hair color we had a Roman Candle. She loved fiercely and compassionately. She was especially fond of elderly people. In her early years she worked at Blacks Nursing Home and she demonstrated an enduring love of helping people. She also had a rare gift of making people laugh and being a generous giver of.

She loved taking pride in her appearance and looking her absolute best. She had a beautiful voice and loved to sing. One of her favorite songs was "I Wish I Knew How it Felt to Be Free," by Nina Simone. She once sang that song in a Talent Show at the Tulsa State Fair.

Carolyn resided in Texas for many years, but would routinely call to check on her family. She never missed a birthday. Before Carolyn's passing she got to wish her mom, affectionately known as "Ms. Jane" a Happy 91st Birthday on October 6, 2026.

Carolyn passed Monday October 12, 2026.

The day we fear as our last is but the Birthday of eternity."
-Lucius Seneca
