Our Message to Mama

*God watched you as you suffered.
He knew you had your share.
He gently closed your weary eyes
and took you in His care.
God saw that you were getting tired,
and a cure was not to be So, He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come with me."
So, He closed your weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace be thine."
He then took you up to Heaven with His gentle hand so kind.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
but you did not go alone.
For parts of us went with you
the day God called you home.
God has you in His keeping we have you in our hearts.
Your memory is our keepsake and with that we will never part.*

Life Reflections

Ms. Shawna Renee Silas entered this life on July 11, 1970, in Kansas City, Missouri, to Wilma Silas and Hosia Jones.

Shawna received her education in the Kansas City Missouri School District, attending Northeast High School. She received her CNA license and began her career in nursing. Her family was her heartbeat. Her children were her pride and joy. She was overjoyed when she became a grandmother. Her grandchildren brought her great joy and happiness. She enjoyed spending time with her family, cooking, having game night and watching movies. She was a sweet soul that would give you the shirt off her back. Even though she was not an active member of a church, she did confess her faith in God and believed His unconditional love for her.

Ms. Shawna Renee Silas departed this life and journeyed into eternity on Saturday, July 19, 2025. Her mother Wilma Silas, her father, Hosia Jones, and her brother Brandon Silas, preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her son; Tyler Silas Sr. (Keshia) of Kansas City, Missouri; her daughter; Adriauna Silas (Marc) of Atlanta, Georgia; two grandsons, Tyler Silas Jr. and Tristian Silas both of Kansas City, Missouri; one granddaughter, Vae'gh Silas-Gaines of Atlanta, Georgia; three sisters, Phyllis Moore (Alfred) of Belton, Missouri, Stephanie Silas of Grandview, Missouri, and Marquita Harris of Kansas City, Missouri; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct thy path.”
(Proverbs 3:5-6)
