

Vivan was born on November 2nd, 1972, in Brooklyn, NY. She was a substitute teacher and cherished the opportunity to teach elementary school children. She had a love for writing, singing, cooking, and helping others. Vivian had a generous and compassionate soul that you could feel simply by being in her presence. Vivian's sparkling blue eyes, contagious laugh, and stunning smile left a lasting impression on all who knew her. Vivian loved music, especially slow music and love songs. She also had a soft heart for animals, especially dogs. Vivian considered her greatest accomplishment and legacy to be her children. She was extremely proud of them.

Vivian is survived by her children Peterson, Julian (Maren), and Natalie whom she loved deeply and who will sorely miss her. She was a beloved sister to Michael, Paul, Benjamin, David, and Luis.
