

In Loving Memory

In Loving Memory

In Loving Memory

Nathalie Burns

Nathalie Burns

Nathalie Burns

February 21, 1937
November 6, 2025

February 21, 1937
November 6, 2025

February 21, 1937
November 6, 2025

GRAVESIDE SERVICE

Monday, November 10, 2025, 11:00 AM
Williams Cemetery, Williams, IA

GRAVESIDE SERVICE

Monday, November 10, 2025, 11:00 AM
Williams Cemetery, Williams, IA

GRAVESIDE SERVICE

Monday, November 10, 2025, 11:00 AM
Williams Cemetery, Williams, IA

CASKET BEARERS

Corey Orton Andrew Orton
Mickey VanHorn Mike Jondal

CASKET BEARERS

Corey Orton Andrew Orton
Mickey VanHorn Mike Jondal

CASKET BEARERS

Corey Orton Andrew Orton
Mickey VanHorn Mike Jondal

Nathalie was born on February 21, 1937, in Williams, Iowa, to Joseph and Daisy (Norem) Hoversten. She graduated from Popejoy School in 1954. On September 2, 1961, she married Bob Burns in Dows, Iowa. Nathalie worked for many years as a bank clerk before opening and operating a professional photography studio in Nebraska City, with Bob. After 20 years they moved to Le Mars, where she continued working in professional photography until she retired and moved to Webster City in 2009.

From a young age, Nathalie enjoyed hunting with her brother, earning the nickname “Annie Oakley” for her skill as a marksman. She also loved spending time outdoors fishing, as well as bowling and participating in league play. An avid golfer, she achieved hole-in-one shots at courses in both Hamburg, Iowa, and Nebraska City. She enjoyed gardening—both vegetables and flowers—planting trees and was a proud member of the Arbor Day Foundation.

Nathalie’s family includes her husband Bob of 64 years; daughter Norma Jean (Corey) Orton, of Kansas City, KS; grandchildren: Andrew (Michelle) Orton, of Olathe, KS and Katie (fiancé Mickey Van Horn) Orton, of Leavenworth, KS; great grandchildren: Oliver and Arthur; two sisters Joan Gaston of Colfax, IA and Pam (Mike) Jondal of Webster City, IA; sister in law Claudia Hoversten of Anchorage, AK. She was preceded in death by her parents; stillborn son Robert David; and siblings Melvin, Lois, Alvina, and Kenny.

Nathalie was born on February 21, 1937, in Williams, Iowa, to Joseph and Daisy (Norem) Hoversten. She graduated from Popejoy School in 1954. On September 2, 1961, she married Bob Burns in Dows, Iowa. Nathalie worked for many years as a bank clerk before opening and operating a professional photography studio in Nebraska City, with Bob. After 20 years they moved to Le Mars, where she continued working in professional photography until she retired and moved to Webster City in 2009.

From a young age, Nathalie enjoyed hunting with her brother, earning the nickname “Annie Oakley” for her skill as a marksman. She also loved spending time outdoors fishing, as well as bowling and participating in league play. An avid golfer, she achieved hole-in-one shots at courses in both Hamburg, Iowa, and Nebraska City. She enjoyed gardening—both vegetables and flowers—planting trees and was a proud member of the Arbor Day Foundation.

Nathalie’s family includes her husband Bob of 64 years; daughter Norma Jean (Corey) Orton, of Kansas City, KS; grandchildren: Andrew (Michelle) Orton, of Olathe, KS and Katie (fiancé Mickey Van Horn) Orton, of Leavenworth, KS; great grandchildren: Oliver and Arthur; two sisters Joan Gaston of Colfax, IA and Pam (Mike) Jondal of Webster City, IA; sister in law Claudia Hoversten of Anchorage, AK. She was preceded in death by her parents; stillborn son Robert David; and siblings Melvin, Lois, Alvina, and Kenny.

Nathalie was born on February 21, 1937, in Williams, Iowa, to Joseph and Daisy (Norem) Hoversten. She graduated from Popejoy School in 1954. On September 2, 1961, she married Bob Burns in Dows, Iowa. Nathalie worked for many years as a bank clerk before opening and operating a professional photography studio in Nebraska City, with Bob. After 20 years they moved to Le Mars, where she continued working in professional photography until she retired and moved to Webster City in 2009.

From a young age, Nathalie enjoyed hunting with her brother, earning the nickname “Annie Oakley” for her skill as a marksman. She also loved spending time outdoors fishing, as well as bowling and participating in league play. An avid golfer, she achieved hole-in-one shots at courses in both Hamburg, Iowa, and Nebraska City. She enjoyed gardening—both vegetables and flowers—planting trees and was a proud member of the Arbor Day Foundation.

Nathalie’s family includes her husband Bob of 64 years; daughter Norma Jean (Corey) Orton, of Kansas City, KS; grandchildren: Andrew (Michelle) Orton, of Olathe, KS and Katie (fiancé Mickey Van Horn) Orton, of Leavenworth, KS; great grandchildren: Oliver and Arthur; two sisters Joan Gaston of Colfax, IA and Pam (Mike) Jondal of Webster City, IA; sister in law Claudia Hoversten of Anchorage, AK. She was preceded in death by her parents; stillborn son Robert David; and siblings Melvin, Lois, Alvina, and Kenny.