Goodbye Dad

It's never the right time to say goodbye.

I will miss you, Dad, and here is why.

You taught me so much: to show no fear, to always have fun,
and face the day with cheer.

You were always so able, so fast and so strong.

In your little boys eyes, you could do no wrong.

You would always listen, and you never pried.

You were the arms around me when I cried.

You were always there for those you loved the most.

You worked so hard, and those strong working hands

led me through life and helped me understand that life can be hard, and tough, and sad,

but through it all, I had my Dad.

And because of you, I understood that life was actually Pretty good.

I believe in you and will follow your path,

and when things go wrong, I'll look back and laugh.

I hope you can hear me so I can let you know that you were and will forever be my superhero.

So yes, today I am full of sorrow,

but I will smile a little more with each tomorrow.

So please, Dad, go be at rest and know to me you were always the best.

I love you so much and miss you every day!

*With Love,
Tyson*

In Loving Memory

Henry Davis

January 29, 1979 - December 27, 2024

Raised in Cleveland, Henry attended James Ford Rhodes High School. He graduated from the Fire Academy in 2003 and later completed the Cleveland Electrical Apprenticeship Program on August 1, 2020, earning his internationally recognized classification as a Journeyman Wireman with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 38. His professional career included working at Cleveland-Cliffs, where he made lasting friendships and contributions. Henry was also immensely proud of starting his own electrician business, Lead Electric, demonstrating his entrepreneurial spirit and dedication to his craft.

Henry's passion for life was evident in his many interests and achievements. He was an avid motorcycle enthusiast and a proud member of the Lost Boyz Motorcycle Club, joining their brotherhood in 2022. He loved riding his Harley Davidson Street Glide and sharing the road with fellow riders. A man of strength and discipline, Henry also pursued MMA fighting and jujitsu, where his dedication earned him several medals. He found relaxation and enjoyment in smoking cigars paired with bourbon and whiskey.

Known for his infectious laughter and ability to light up any room, Henry cherished spending time with his family and making others smile. His joy for life and deep love for those around him will be forever remembered and profoundly missed by his family, friends, and all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Henry Davis, age 45, passed away on December 27, 2024. He was born on January 29, 1979, in Cleveland, Ohio, to Elaine Cullum and Anthony McCoy, with Vincent Cullum and Levon Burnett, Sr., playing a significant role in his upbringing.

Henry was the beloved father of Tyson Davis, born to Henry and Elizabeth Davis. He was the dear brother of Anthony Davis, Chavone Burnett, Levon Burnett, Jr., Deshaun Burnett, and Latisha Williams. A treasured uncle, he lovingly watched over Zarría, Deshaun Jr., Makiya, Mykayla, Braylen, Kayson, Noah, Nehemiah, Teal, and Abrielle, and he was a proud great-uncle to Messiah. He was also godfather to Mekhi. Henry was the devoted companion of Danielle Ponyicky and a loving pet dad to Luna.
