

I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave
an afterglow of smiles
when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright & sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When life is done.

Obituary

Alicia Williams, lovingly known to many as “Leelee”, was a truly special person whose presence brought love, laughter, beauty, warmth, and joy into the lives of everyone around her.

Leelee was known for many things: her love of cleanliness, a house full of drinks and snacks, her beautiful smile, her contagious laugh, her sense of style, and most importantly, the way she cared for others. She had a heart for people and had a way of making everyone feel welcome and loved. She could touch someone’s heart without ever having to meet them.

Leelee was the second oldest of four children. Her mother, Paulette, raised her family with love, and together with her stepfather, Keith Johnson, who had been a part of Leelee’s life all her life, their family was built on love and togetherness. From oldest to youngest, the children were Latasha, Alicia, Markeith, and Keisha.

Being a mother was one of the most important parts of Leelee’s life. She was blessed with four beautiful children: Daija, her oldest; Deajia, her second child; Aniya, her third child; and Anaisha, her youngest. She was also a proud grandmother to three grandchildren: Zaivonne, the oldest; Zaiden, the middle grandchild; and Al’Ruhs, her youngest granddaughter, who also shared a very special birthday with Leelee’s youngest daughter, Anaisha.

Leelee loved her family deeply. She also cherished her friends and the people she considered family. Her close cousin Natasha was more like a sister to her, and together they shared special memories and enjoyed life.

Leelee loved to party, shop, travel, eat, laugh, and have a good time. She especially loved traveling to Georgia and creating memories with the people she loved. She was known for making sure everyone was safe and cared for. Her caring nature extended to everyone around her.

Christmas was especially meaningful to Leelee. She loved hosting, bringing people together, and giving gifts. She found joy in making others happy. She was incredibly generous, forgiving, welcoming, stylish, and VERY hardworking.

Even during her sickness, Leelee remained Positive. She never allowed negativity to define her. She faced her circumstances with strength & continued to love, laugh, give, & care for the people around her.

Leelee was more than a daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, cousin, and friend. She was a source of love and light. She left an impression on people that will never be forgotten, and her memory will live on through her children, grandchildren, family, friends, and everyone whose heart she touched.

Alicia "Leelee" Williams will forever be remembered for her beautiful smile, her laughter, her generous heart, her strength, her style, her love of family, & the way she made people feel at home.

Her life was a gift. Her love was a blessing. Her memory will live on forever.

II Corinthians 5:6-9

Therefore we are always confident knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. (For we live by faith & not by sight.) We are confident, I say, and willing to be absent from the body: and to be present with the Lord. Wherefore we labor that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of Him.
