

Heaven's Grocery Store

I was walking down life's highway a long time ago
One day, I saw a sign that read: "Heaven's Grocery Store"
As I got a little closer, the door came open wide
And when I came to myself, I was standing inside.
I saw a host of angels; they were standing everywhere
One handed me a basket and said "My child, shop with care."
Everything a Christian needed was in that Grocery store...
And all you couldn't carry, you could come back for more.
First I got some patience; love was in the same row
Further down was understanding, you need that wherever you go.
I got a box or two of wisdom, a bag or two of faith
I just couldn't miss the Holy Ghost for He was all over the place.
I stopped to get some strength and courage, But I remembered I needed some grace.
I didn't forget salvation, for salvation that was free
So I tried to get enough of that to save both you and me.

Then I started up to the counter to pay my grocery bill.
For I thought I had everything to do my Master's will.

I saw prayer on the next aisle And I just had to put that in.
For I knew that when I stepped outside, I would run right into sin.
Peace and joy were plentiful; they were on the last shelf.
Songs and praises were hanging near. So I just helped myself.

Then I said to the angel: "Now how much do I owe?"

He smiled at me and said ----

"My child Jesus paid your bill, a long time ago."

Obituary

Denise Newell, affectionately known as “Ms. Nise,” was born on September 4, 1958, at Booth Hospital in Covington, Kentucky, to the late Melvin and J.L. Cowart. She departed this life on July 25, 2025.

Denise was preceded in death by her loving husband, Henry B. Newell; her parents; siblings Patricia, John, Anthony, and Timothy Cowart; and her bonus brother, Jason Arrington.

Denise attended Lincoln Grant High School and worked as a nurse’s aide. She had a passion for playing spades and chewing bubble gum. Known as “Ms. Fix It,” she taught her family how to patch up just about anything. Denise cherished her family and friends and was known for her contagious laugh, which will always be remembered. She crocheted a variety of items, from covers to socks; her warmth was woven into everything she touched. Those gifts now serve as comforting reminders of her love and legacy.

Denise leaves behind a rich legacy, including her children: Chanisea Payne (James Payne, Sr.), Chalisa Cowart (Derrick Yeboah), and Arthur B. Cowart, Sr. (Heaven Morgan); her grandchildren: Shakeyia Vance, Zamieah Harris (Desmond Payne, Sr.), Zonyae Harris, Keyiontae Cowart, Ajanae Cowart, James Payne, Jr., Arthur B. Jr., Charles Harris, Jr., Brazil Cowart, Comaega Yeboah, Sincere Cowart, Hendrix Morgan, Sosa Cowart, Chelsea Evans, and Keshon Banks; her siblings: Marvar Cowart, Angela Nelson, Minerva Cowart, Sherry Cowart, Ricky Cowart, and Billy Cowart; as well as her bonus siblings: Teresa Arrington, James Arrington, and Veronica Arrington. She also leaves behind nine great-grandchildren and a host of other beloved family members and friends.

Denise was a light in our lives. Her memory will live on through the lessons she taught, the love she gave, and the laughter she shared. She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
